Part V (3b) - The organization has requested an extension for filing 990-T, and an extension was granted until August 15.

Part VI 11(a) - The 990 is completed by the CPA and returned to the in-house accountant for review. Once the in-house accountant has reviewed the 990 it is presented to the CEO for review and approval prior to presentation at the next Board of Directors meeting. The in-house accountant presents the 990 to the Board and responds to all inquiries and concerns, if any. If the 990 is approved it is written to the minutes of the organization and the 990 is made available to the public upon request. If it is not approved by the Board, the in-house accountant and the CEO meets with the CPA to resolve all concerns.

Part VI 12 (c) - All employees are required by policy to disclose annually any conflicts that may exist. This is discussed with each employee annually at the time of their annual evaluation along with the disciplinary action that will be given when an employee fails to comply. In addition, upper management is required by the CPA to provide written representation each year regarding the existence or nonexistence of conflicts.

Part VI 15 (a) (b) - The salaries of the eight employees which include two key employees are also approved by the granting agency that provides more than 99% of the organization's funds.

Part VI 19 - The 990 and policies of the organization are available for public inspection upon request.

Part VI 2 - The Chief Operating and Financial Officer and Vice President of the Board and employee of the agency are married. Both are key employees and members of the Board of Directors.
