Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	Each Director, prior to taking his position on the Board, and all present Directors shall submit in writing to the Chairman of the Board a list of all businesses or other organizations of which he is an officer, director, trustee, member, owner (either as sole proprietor or partner), shareholder, employee or agent, with which the Corporation has, or might reasonably in the future enter into a relationship or a transaction in which the Director would have conflicting interests. The Chairman of the board shall become familiar with the statements of all Directors in order to guide his conduct should a conflict arise. At such time as any matter comes before the board in such a way as to give rise to a conflict of interest, the affected Director shall make known the potential conflict, whether disclosed by his written statement or not, and after answering any questions that might be asked of him, shall withdraw from the meeting for so long as the matter shall continue under discussion. Should the matter be brought to a vote, neither the affected Director nor any other Director with a pecuniary benefit transaction with the Corporation shall vote on it. The Board will comply with all requirements of New Hampshire law where conflicts of interest are involved. The New Hampshire requirements are incorporated into and made a part of this policy statement. Where the transaction involving a board member, trustee or officer exceeds five hundred ($500) but is less than five thousand ($5,000) in a fiscal year, a two-thirds vote of the disinterested directors is required. Where the transaction exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000) in a fiscal year, then a two-thirds vote of the disinterested directors and publication in the required newspaper is required. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect that a disclosure was made, the abstention from voting, and the actual vote itself. Every new member of the Board will be advised of this policy upon entering the duties of his or her office, and shall sign a statement acknowledging understanding of and agreement to this policy.
