Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III ☐ Yes ☒ No

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

We opened our doors in 1912 to provide financial stability to immigrants who came here from all over the world to work in the mills. Our goals then were the same as they are now: helping each member make smart financial choices, helping people save for their future, making loans available so our members can realize The American Dream by purchasing a home, buying a car or even starting their own business.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Written conflict of interest	Page 6 Part VI Section B Line 12c	Each year the Code of Ethics, which incorporates the Conflict of Interest Policy, is updated and ratified by the Board of Directors. The Code of Ethics pertains to employees as well as the Board of Directors. Annually, all employees and Board Members sign an acknowledgement that they have received and read the Code of Ethics. Further, all employees and Board Members must identify, in writing, all deposits and loan accounts in which they have a related interest. Loans granted to senior management, Directors, or their related parties must be approved by the Board. If the loan is for a Board Member or his/her related interest, the Board Member must leave the boardroom during the discussion and vote. The Board Member is recused from the vote.

Board review of Officer Compensation	Page 6 Part VI Section B Line 15 a & b	The credit union's Board of Directors assigns responsibility to the Board's Personnel Committee to interview members of senior management for input in the preparation of a written performance evaluation of the credit union's President. The Personnel Committee is comprised of independent directors. The Personnel Committee will then present the written evaluation to the full board, along with a recommendation for compensation. The compensation level is based on a combination of the President's perceived value to the credit union and job performance. Based on the Personnel Committee's recommendation, the full Board approves the President's compensation. For members of senior management, written performance evaluations are prepared by the President and reviewed with the Board's Chairman. No other Board Directors are involved in the compensation discussions for senior management. Compensation is based on the value to the credit union and job performance.

Statement of uncertain Tax position	Form 990 page 4 Part IV Line 11f	The Credit Union is a state-chartered credit union described in Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(14). As such, the Credit Union is exempt from federal taxation of income derived from the performance of activities that are in the furtherance of its exempt purposes. However, IRC Section 511 imposes a tax on the unrelated business income (as defined in Section 512) derived by state-chartered credit unions. Many states have similar laws. The specific application of Section 512 to the various activities conducted by state-chartered credit unions has been at issue for many years. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and certain state taxing authorities are currently revisiting what, if any, products and services provided by the Credit Union are subject to UBIT. There is currently very little guidance in the IRS Code on what activities should be subject to UBIT. The IRS has indicated that they are studying the issue and may issue additional guidance. As a result, at the time there is uncertainty regarding whether the Credit Union should pay income tax on certain types of net taxable income from activities that may be considered by taxing authorities as unrelated to the purpose for which the Credit Union was granted nontaxable status. The Credit Union has not filed any tax returns in the past for potential taxable activities. The taxing authorities have the ability to assess taxes, penalties and interest for any years for which no tax return was filed. The Credit Union is currently not subject to U.S. federal, or state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities. In the opinion of management, any liability resulting from taxing authorities imposing income taxes on the net taxable income from activities deemed to be unrelated to the Credit Union's nontaxable status is not expected to have a material effect on the Credit Union's financial position or results of operations.
