Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
The Fund for Charitable Giving

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of The Fund for Charitable Giving (Fund), a nonprofit corporation, as of December 31, 2010, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. The prior year comparative information has been derived from the Fund's financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2009. This information was audited by other auditors, whose report dated May 4, 2010 expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as of December 31, 2010, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2010 AND 2009

1. ORGANIZATION

The Fund for Charitable Giving (Fund) is a tax-exempt public charity that has been, organized to support charitable organizations nationwide. The Fund issues grants to public charities. The Fund accepts contributions from individuals (donors) who can contribute to the Fund at any time and qualify for a tax deduction in the year the contribution is made. The minimum initial contribution is set at $10,000. Donors recommend grants to qualified public charitable organizations of their choice at any time. PNC Bank, N.A. (PNC) is the Trustee of the Fund and oversees the investments and disbursements of the donor advised funds.

The Fund invests its assets in four investment pools, each of which has a different investment objective. Donors may allocate contributions to any combination of the investment pools. Contributions from all donors are pooled together for investment purposes. The Fund maintains sub-accounts with respect to all individual donors. Each sub-account reflects the amount of the donor's contribution and the related investment and disbursement activity.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and, accordingly, income is recognized as earned and expenses as incurred, regardless of timing of payments.

Net Assets

The Fund classifies resources for accounting and reporting purposes into separate net asset classes based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. In the accompanying financial statements, net assets that have similar characteristics have been combined into similar categories. A description of the Fund's net asset categories is as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets

Unrestricted net assets are net assets that are not subject to donor imposed restrictions or stipulations as to purpose or use.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets

Net assets whose use is limited by donor-imposed stipulations that either expire with the passage of time or can be fulfilled and removed by actions of the Fund pursuant to those stipulations. The Fund currently has no temporarily restricted net assets.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets

Permanently restricted net assets represent resources whose use is limited by donor-imposed restrictions that require the net assets to be maintained permanently. The Fund currently has no permanently restricted net assets.

Contributions

Cash contributions are recorded on the date when the donor check is received by the Fund. Contributions received in forms other than cash are recorded at the fair value (the closing price of the security) of the asset contributed on the date received. The non-cash assets contributed are subsequently liquidated and the proceeds from the sales are reinvested into one of the Fund's pooled investments, as recommended by the donor.

Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Fund utilizes various investment instruments, including mutual funds and common stock. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accordingly, the amount that may be available for charitable grants

THE FUND FOR CHARITABLE GIVING

3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

In accordance with Topic 820, the fair value of investments is categorized into a three-tier hierarchy, which assigns priorities to inputs of valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Inputs refer to assumptions market participants would use when pricing an asset and are classified as observable (i.e. assumptions based on market prices obtained from independent sources) and unobservable (i.e. assumptions based on best information available or the reporting entity's assumptions). The hierarchy of inputs is summarized below:

- Level 1 - observable, represents assets with unadjusted quoted market prices for identical assets (registered securities).
- Level 2 - other observable, not quoted market prices for identical assets. As of December 31, 2010 and 2009, there were no investments classified as Level 2.
- Level 3 - unobservable, reflect reporting entity's assumptions that would be made by market participants. As of December 31, 2010 and 2009, there were no investments classified as Level 3.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis:

Equity Securities

This category includes U.S. Common Stocks. Fair value measurements for U.S. Common Stocks are obtained from quoted prices or executed exchange trades. These measurements are classified as Level 1.

Investment Pools

This category includes Investment Pools, for which the underlying investments contain Domestic Equity and Fixed Income Mutual Funds which are registered securities. These measurements are classified as Level 1.

The fair values of the investment securities classified by input, which the Fund held at December 31, 2010 and 2009, are as follows:

Units are assigned no later than the business day after the Fund receives either cash or the proceeds from the sale of the securities donated and allocates them to the investment pools. The Fund determines unit value at the end of each business day by dividing the value of each investment fund pool by the number of outstanding units in the respective investment pools.

4. FEDERAL INCOME TAX

The Fund is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3). In addition, the Fund qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation. Since its initial filing for tax-exempt status, the Fund has not received any notice from the Internal Revenue Service that such tax-exempt status has been challenged or changed. Further, the Fund annually files a Form 990. The Forms filed are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service generally for three years after they are filed.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Fund to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the Fund. The Fund has evaluated whether any tax positions have met the recognition threshold and have measured the Fund's exposure to the tax positions. Management believes that the Fund has adequately addressed all relevant tax positions and that there are no unrecorded tax liabilities. Any interest or penalties assessed to the Fund are recorded in administrative expenses. No interest or penalties from federal or state tax authorities were recorded in the accompanying financial statements.
