Year Up, Inc is an innovative workforce development program which serves disconnected young adults from major urban areas Year Ups mission is to close the opportunity divide by providing urban young adults with the skills, experience and support which will empower them to reach their potential through professional careers and higher education Year Up achieves this mission through a high support, high expectation model that combines marketable job skills, stipends, internships and college credits Our holistic approach focuses on students' professional and personal development to place these young adults on a viable path to economic self-sufficiency Year Up is based on a simple premise if young adults from urban communities are challenged and supported to learn real job skills and gain hands-on work experience in a corporate environment, they're more likely to get livable-wage jobs and go on to college In our ten year history, Year Up's growth trajectory has been steep We have increased our annual operating budget from $700,000 in 2001 to $31.1 million in 2010 From a class of 22 students in 2001 we have served approximately 1,632 students in 2010 Year Up now operates in eight cities Boston, Providence, New York City, Washington DC, San Francisco, Atlanta, Chicago, and Baltimore We began serving students in our 9th city, Seattle, in March 2011 Year Up has unique partnerships with institutions of higher education to provide our students with up to 18 college credits upon graduation We have developed a network of more than 170 corporate partners, companies that support Year Up's internship program which currently accounts for over 32% of Year Up's operating revenue Year Up's model works In our ten years, it has served over 4,100 at risk young adults Nearly 70% of our students have completed the intensive program More than 85% of Year Up graduates secure full-time or part-time employment earning an average wage of $15/hour (equivalent to $30,000 annual salary) or enroll in college full time within four months of graduation Currently 25% of Year Up alumni are attending college, most while also working Year Up is providing real opportunities for urban young adults to demonstrate their potential and, at the same time, partnering with corporations to provide them with a new source of talent Newly released research independently conducted by Economic Mobility Corporation indicates that students who complete the Year Up program have access to higher quality jobs and earned up to 30 percent more than those who did not

SPECIAL EVENT EXPENSES	PART XII LINE 2D & PART XIII LINE 2D
ASC 740	PART X LINE 2	On April 25, 2001, the Internal Revenue Service granted the Organization an exemption from federal taxes under section 501 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3). However, certain activities of exempt organizations, to the extent profitable, may be subject to Federal and State taxation as unrelated business income. The Organization adopted the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes effective January 1, 2009. As required by ASC 740-10, the Organization recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more likely than not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. At January 1, 2009, the Organization applied ASC 740 to all tax positions for which the statute of limitations remained open and determined there were no material unrecognized tax benefits as of that date. In addition, there have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits from January 1, 2010 to December 31, 2010. Management believes that the Organizations statute of limitations for the years ending prior to December 31, 2007 are no longer subject to examination by tax authorities in its major tax jurisdictions. Accordingly, the Organization has not recorded any provision for income taxes.

GOVERNANCE, MANAGEMENT AND DISCLOSURE	PART VI SECTION B LINE 15	Each Year Up staff member, including the CEO, receives a 360 degree review (including a review from Local or National board for senior executives) prior to receiving a salary adjustment. This review occurs annually. Inputs to the salary increase are informed by a number of factors, including but not limited to, competency proficiency, performance, experience, geography, organizational growth, and overall economy. The governing board reviews performance evaluations, salaries, and recommendations for increases for all Year Up executives annually to ensure our compensation system is fair and equitable and in line with market analysis. Year Up salaries and salary bands are reviewed against market data (data including over 2000 non profit organizations) on an on-going basis. This review is conducted to ensure Year Ups compensation is competitive, but in line with our market niche. The Human Capital Committee of the Board conducts the CEO review. Included in the committee file is a written performance review given to the CEO, a competitive benchmark study on executive level compensation, as well as documentation in the meeting minutes regarding a review of all executive compensation decisions.
