	Part I, Line 1a	The Organization paid for first-class travel for the domestic portion of an international trip taken by the President when the international business class airfare proved to be less expensive than coach. The Organization also paid for first-class travel for a portion of a trip taken by an officer in order for the officer to arrive at his destination by a specific time. The Organization paid the travel costs of the spouses of two officers to attend the Organization's international conference. The spouses act as a welcoming committee to the delegates and their spouses. As such, the spouses perform significant duties for the Organization at the conference and their travel is for a bona fide business purpose of the Organization. Reimbursement of travel for applicable spouses of officers to attend the annual international conference is in accordance with the Organization's Board Policy Manual.
	Part I, Line 4a	The President, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Information Officer of the Organization participate in a nonqualified Section 457(f) deferred compensation plan. Contributions totaling $44,000 were deposited into the plan during the year ended December 31, 2010 on behalf of these individuals.
Supplemental Information	Part III	The Organization has adopted an executive compensation setting policy applicable to all disqualified persons, including the Organization's President, officers and key employees. Under the policy, an independent committee of the Board of Directors annually reviews and approves the compensation levels of all individuals subject to the policy. The deliberations and decisions of the committee are contemporaneously substantiated. The committee utilizes comparability data in its deliberations; updated comparability data is generally obtained annually.
