What is the organization's primary exempt purpose? Provide public library services in the Town of Poestenkill and adjacent areas		Expenses (Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts, optional for others)
Describe what was achieved in carrying out the organization's exempt purposes. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title
28	Library Programs Salaries The salaries are for the library director and seven part-time employees needed to maintain operation of the library. The library is open 28 hours per week, 52 weeks per year. In the year 2010, the total number of patron visits to the library was 12034. The library has 1,477 registered resident borrowers and 195 non-resident registered borrowers. These figures do not include borrowers who are registered in other libraries but use the Poestenkill Library regularly for services. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here	28a	39,674
29	Library Programs Library loan materials The library loans materials is the cost to purchase new materials to add to the collection in order to service the chartered population. The total number of items in the Poestenkill Library collection at the end of 2010 was 14,506. This includes books, audio books, DVDs, music CDs, and magazines. The total circulation for these items in 2010 was 23,746. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here	29a	16,510
30	Library Programs Regional Library catalog access In order to provide patron access to the materials in all 29 libraries in the Upper Hudson Library System, the libraries must have a central database and a way to access that database. The regional library catalog access is the fee which is charged to each member library to provide and maintain that database for the year. This allows over one million items to be available to each patron in the Upper Hudson Library System and a courier system to deliver the materials from library to library. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here	30a	2,404
