Form 990-EZ
Part III

As way of background, over the past several years, the population of the City of St. Louis ("City") has consistently declined. In 1990, the population was 396,685; by 1999, it declined by 12.3%, with further drops experienced over the past five years. As one might expect, the following observations have been made in connection with these population declines:

a. Former residents of the City have left for more outlying areas, namely St. Louis County and St. Charles County.

b. The number of employees working in the City has declined significantly.

c. The office vacancy rate for the City is significant.

The Foundation has been established to assist in the revitalization and betterment of the City by engaging in charitable and educational activities which will in turn benefit the entire St. Louis Metropolitan area. The Foundation will accomplish these goals through the following activities:

a. Conduct community outreach programs to encourage City resident involvement by providing assistance to less fortunate members of the community.

b. Provide funding for projects promoting growth and improvement of the City.

c. There are numerous municipalities and four primary county governments within the St. Louis Metropolitan area, but Foundation creators believe at times there is a lack of cooperation among the local governments in solving the region's problems. For example, East St. Louis is often referred to as an economically distressed city, whereas St. Louis County is generally recognized as more economically successful, characterized by beautiful neighborhoods, gleaming office buildings, and an abundance of business activity. The Foundation hopes to assist these local governments in working together to achieve goals which benefit the entire metropolitan area, by initially focusing on the City which is the region's economic and social core. The Foundation will organize programs where executives from the local governments will engage in meaningful dialogue that will hopefully bridge the gap between the various governments.

    1. The revival of the City will promote unity and interaction among the residents of all counties in the St. Louis Metropolitan area by providing a common place for everyone to engage in social and cultural activities.

2. The restoration of the City will preserve historic architecture and cultural offerings, create new residential neighborhoods, and encourage the creation of programs to promote public safety, such as neighborhood watch groups.

d. Educate the community about the history of St. Louis through the promotion of events which attract attention to items and persons of historical significance.

The Foundation initially has focused its revitalization efforts by sponsoring a Habitat for Humanity Project in the City ("Project"). In addition to organizing the volunteers to construct the Project house sponsored by the Foundation, the Foundation has made financial contributions to the Project.

The Foundation will also promote additional service projects to residents of the St. Louis Metropolitan area in the hope that members of the community will devote their time as well as financial resources to these worthy causes. The Foundation may support, sponsor or produce other activities and events in the St. Louis community which promote revitalization of the City, goodwill and cooperation among civic and community leaders, as well as providing community engagement activities.
