We simply love, listen and learn, build relationships and earn trust so that we may hear the deeper needs in our community, then with local government, schools, churches and other service organizations and raise up volunteers to fill the gap. We began with the child in providing before and after school care and enrichment programs for 'working poor' families so kids had a safe, nurturing place while their parents worked to sustain their families. It has evolved to 34 programs sustained by approximately 700 volunteers who inspire hope as we provide a 'hand-up' to families on the margins from pre-elementary Play and Learn program coupled with parent English as a Learning/Secondary language classes, parent computer learning labs, to free medical and dental clinics, and a recording studio, art studio and culinary 'community kitchen' programs.
