Part VIII, Line 3 - Income

During 2010, the Foundation received payments totaling $249,271.75 from BNY Mellon, 1735 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19102. BNY Mellon is the Substitute Trustee of the Residuary Estate of Thomas Skelton Harrison, Deceased, and the ultimate successor to the Northern Trust Company, the original trustee named in Mr. Harrison's Will.

The 2010 payments reflected a change in the status of the Trust as to which BNY Mellon acts as Trustee. Previously, BNY Mellon (or its predecessors) made annual payments from the Trust to the Foundation consisting of 4.5 percent of the average of the total values of all assets held by the Trustee, determined as of December 31 of each of the three preceding years. In 2010, BNY Mellon advised the Foundation that it had reviewed the status of the Trust and had concluded that the Trust should be treated as a private foundation. That means, among other things, that BNY Mellon is obligated to pay to the beneficiary, the Thomas Skelton Harrison Foundation, an amount equal to at least 5 percent of the fair market value of the Trust assets. The amounts paid to the Foundation in 2010 reflect the 5 percent payment for 2010 plus additional payments that were calculated by BNY Mellon to reflect the difference between payments actually made to the Foundation and amounts that should have been paid if the Trust was treated as a private foundation (net of the 2 percent excise tax levied on such foundations) for the periods running back to 2004.

The Foundation also received $32.00 in interest during 2010 on a savings account that was opened to serve as a reserve for contingencies pursuant to a provision in Mr. Harrison's Will.

PART III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

The Foundation awards grants funded by the payments it receives from the Trust. Grants are awarded to individuals and organizations that apply in accordance with criteria and procedures established by the Trustees consistent with requirements contained in Mr. Harrison's Will. Grants are made to fund research, study and other activity that promotes sound municipal government and finance in the City of Philadelphia and for work that promotes the general welfare of its inhabitants, as set forth in Section 13 of the Will, a copy of which is attached. In 2010 grant payments were made to the organizations and/or individuals listed in the table below, for the projects described and in the amounts stated. Each applicant provided evidence of its tax exempt status and/or charitable purpose.

The Trust's holdings, as of December 31, 2010, are set forth on the attached Investment Summary from the Mellon Bank Trust and Investment Department, Account Number 124-J00, dated December 31, 2010.

PART VII, Section A – List of Officers, Directors & Trustees

In 2010 the following persons served as members of the Foundation's Board of Trustees:

1. Stephen J. Harmelin, Esquire (Chair), Dilworth Paxson LLP, The Mellon Bank Center, 1735 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19109, appointed by the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

2. Angell Keene (Vice-Chair), 1038 Hazelwood Drive, Philadelphia, PA 19141, appointed by the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

7. J. William Mills, III, PNC Bank, 1600 Market Street, Third Floor, Philadelphia PA 19103, appointed by the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

The only officer of the Foundation who is not also a Trustee is David F. Abernethy, Esquire, who serves as Secretary by appointment of the Trustees.

The Trustees meet several times each year to review reports, consider and approve applications for grants, and to meet with selected applicants for grants. None of the Trustees is compensated for service to the Foundation. The Secretary keeps the Foundation's books and records, corresponds with applicants for grants, reports to the Trustees on the Foundation's business and financial status, arranges meetings and otherwise handles the legal and business affairs of the Foundation. The Secretary is not individually compensated for his work for the Foundation but his law firm is reimbursed for his time at an agreed hourly rate up to an annual cap of $10,000. Time in excess of that cap is provided by the Secretary and his firm without charge. There is no capital stock outstanding.

Under the Will the residuary estate is vested in the corporate trustee, BNY Mellon, which is responsible for investing the principal and making the payments described above to the Thomas Skelton Harrison Foundation. The Foundation and its Trustees have no responsibility for the Trust except to spend the payments received from that Trust by making grants and other expenditures that promote the purposes outlined in the Will.

BNY Mellon furnishes the Foundation with detailed quarterly statements of income, transactions and investments in and market value of the assets of the Trust. The Secretary of the Foundation and selected Trustees of the Foundation meet periodically with BNY Mellon to review the status of investments held by the Trust. Securities are not purchased on margin, nor are loans taken out to purchase any investment.

SCHEDULE L, Part IV

The Secretary of the Foundation, David F. Abernethy, Esquire, and his law firm, Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP, provide legal counsel and administrative services to the Foundation in return for a fee approved by the Trustees as described above. In 2010, the total fee for professional services paid to Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP in 2010 was $10,000, calculated on the basis of an agreed hourly rate for time provided by the Secretary and his staff, capped in accordance with an agreement set forth above, with all time in excess of the cap being provided without charge. The Foundation also reimbursed Drinker Biddle & Reath for certain costs and expenses (e.g., photocopying, postage, duplicating, etc.) incurred in the administration of the Foundation's affairs or the provision of legal services to the Foundation, to the extent those costs were advanced by the firm. The Foundation pays certain administrative expenses directly by check rather than having them advanced by its counsel.

LINE 11 (B)

Section 13 of the Will of Thomas Skelton Harrison

The following is the text of Section 13 of the Will of Thomas Skelton Harrison, which establishes the Foundation and the Trust that funds it, outlines the procedures for appointment of Trustees, establishes rules governing eligibility to serve as a Trustee, and sets forth, in subsections (e) and (f), the criteria that the Trustees are to apply in making grants from the income received from the Trust:

THIRTEENTH: It is my will, and I direct, that after my decease there shall be constituted a board of trustees, which shall be entitled to receive the income of the above mentioned residuary estate from the Northern Trust Company, trustee appointed under the preceding clause of this my will.

(a) This board of trustees shall be composed of seven men, citizens of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and residents of or doing business in the city of Philadelphia, who shall be selected and appointed severally and respectively by the board of trustees, managers, governors or directors, as the case may be, of the following corporations or institutions:

The Franklin Institute of the State of Pennsylvania for the Promotion of the Mechanic Arts

The Law Association of Philadelphia

The College of Physicians

The City Club of Philadelphia

The Board of Trade

The Board of City Trusts

The University of Pennsylvania

(b) Each of the above named electoral bodies shall select its trustee preferably from its own membership, or from the membership of the society or corporation represented by it, but other persons not connected with such society or corporation may be chosen. But no person shall be elected or shall serve a trustee who occupies any office, elected or appointed, salaried, or unsalaried, of the state of Pennsylvania or city of Philadelphia, excepting members of the board of city trusts, other than those who are members thereof ex officio. And if any trustee after his appointment as such shall accept any such office, he shall, ipso facto, cease to be such trustee, and his place shall be filled as though he were deceased.

(c) Each of said trustees shall be elected for a term of three years. When and as such trustee shall die or resign or accept office as above stated, the electoral body by which he was elected shall elect his successor for a term of three years. The trustees shall serve without any salary or compensation but may rent a suitable office for the transaction of their business and employ any necessary assistants, experts and legal counsel.

(d) Should any electoral body fail to appoint its representative trustee for a period of six months after the right to do so shall accrue, or if any electoral body shall lose its existence, then any of the courts of common pleas of Philadelphia county or any court which may hereafter be constituted exercising the same jurisdiction, shall have the power on application made to such court by the trustees otherwise appointed, to select some suitable person to act upon the said board of trustees for a period of three years, and so on from time to time.

(e) The board of trustees thus constituted shall use and apply the income received by it from time to time for the following uses and purposes:

1. To secure the honest and impartial enforcement of the terms of all contracts made by the city of Philadelphia providing for the furnishing by contractors of labor, or for the erection of buildings, the construction of public improvements, the cleaning of streets, the removal of refuse, including the proper method of carting ashes and garbage &c., the furnishing of water, gas, electricity or transportation facilities or the performance of any other work, or the finishing of any other supplies of any kind or nature for the said city.

2. To obtain the prompt prosecution of and just punishment of all persons guilty of violating contracts with said city or of peculation from its funds either directly or indirectly.

3. To investigate municipal affairs in the city of Philadelphia, and obtain and disseminate information in relation thereto, to aid the officers of departments of the city by advice as to the methods of municipal work, to frame proper legislation in regard thereto, and to aid in the inauguration or conduct of movements for municipal reform and generally for such purposes as will contribute towards the improvement of governmental conditions in the city of Philadelphia.

4. To assist in any special investigation in aid of any special public movement, in the investigation of any department of the city, to assist in the prosecution of any class of frauds or crimes, including frauds against the election laws, and in any other public service that they may deem proper.

5. To further the immediate adoption by the city of Philadelphia of a wise, clear and accurate system of bookkeeping and accounting, including as a feature thereof, the frequent publication of lucid statements as to its financial condition.

6. But it is my will that the funds at the disposal of said Board shall never be used to further the interests of any political party, or to secure the election of any officer of the municipal government, or for any similar purpose, it being my intention that this fund shall be used for the express purposes of this trust, and not as an instrument of partisan politics, for which reason I have endeavored to have the trustees selected by the most representative and public spirited corporate bodies of the city of Philadelphia.

(f) And if it shall be found that the income at any time or from time to time accumulates beyond the needs of the board of trustees in the performance of the above purposes and a prudent reserve for sudden and unexpected contingencies, so that some of the income thus accumulated may safely be used for other public purposes, the trustees are authorized to expend such sum in their discretion in such a way as may tend to promote the health, comfort and general welfare of the citizens of the city of Philadelphia, bearing however in mind the special purposes for which this trust fund is established as indicating the way in which such expenditures should be made. And no expenditure of any of the funds at the disposal of the board of trustees shall be made for any purpose except by the vote of the majority of the entire board.
