Monitoring procedures (Part I, line 2)		The primary exempt purpose of the foundation is to raise funds by conducting golf tournaments, charity auctions, and basic fundraising donation drives. The proceeds are used to make grants to various charities in the Washington DC metropolitan area and scholarship grants to young men and women to help defray the cost of attending college. The scholarship recipients are selected after reviewing applications, transcripts, and personal recommendations by a scholarship selection committee. Criteria for awarding scholarships to applicants include, but are not limited to, prior academic achievement, financial needs, and letters of recommendation. A selection committee makes their decision based on all available information.
