Direct Charitable Activities	Expenses
Counselor, Advocate & Support Staff Scholarship Program (CASS)	$ 202,023.

Helps workers in the field of domestic violence to develop and enhance their skills, which in turn will increase their effectiveness in serving their clients. This scholarship program is intended to assist such agencies' support staff in their professional development to the benefit of their business and administrative requirements.

This national program is open to men and women who have been employed by a domestic violence service agency for a minimum of one year and who are enrolled in specific programs.

Up to 60 recipients are selected each academic year.

Change Your World Scholarship Program	$ 31,968.

Recognizes that children who have been secondary victims of domestic violence face unique challenges to independence and self sufficiency and that they may not have the financial stability of other college students. This program offers tuition assistance scholarships to sons and daughters of women who have graduated from the Women's Independence Scholarship Program (described above).

This national grant program grants a maximum of 50 awards per year.
