PART III - What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?

SOAR for Youth is a dynamic new program that creates a better future for foster youth, who are among the America's most vulnerable citizens. Partnering with one of America's finest universities - the University of California at Berkeley, SOAR for Youth provides intense training, motivation, and support to enable these young people to finish high school, attend college and to succeed in life. Recent studies show that the dim educational prospects for foster youth can be transformed by just the kind of encouragement and academic enrichment programs offered by SOAR for Youth.

PART III - Line 28

I. 2010 Accomplishments

With financial support from and through collaborative efforts with the members of the community, SOAR for Youth successfully hosted a winter camp and two one-week residential summer camps on the University of California Berkeley campus. The camp curriculum included:

- Academic enrichment in critical subject-matter areas such as math, writing and project management.
 - College orientation and guidance, including presentations on post-secondary options and financial aid availability for foster youth.
 - Outdoor adventures where bonding and teamwork are key.
 - Success stories from former foster youth and career role models in various professions such as Business and Law.
 - Life-skills training, including help with personal finance, etiquette and practicing good table manners at a local restaurant.
 - Career development, including exploring personality types and communicating with different People.

Examples of SOAR for Youth 2010 camp activities can be found at:

http://soarfor youth.org/prepare_2010_montage.html
and http://soarfor youth.org/learn_2010_montage.html

At SOAR camp--whether studying math or learning to sail—our young participants were closely supervised, coached, and counseled by caring and experienced professional

In addition to summer camps, SOAR for Youth activities throughout the year help kids stay connected with their peers, giving them an emotional home-base and reminding them of those who care. Evidence suggests that this sustained personal support greatly enhances life prospects for youth who have been in the foster care system.

The results of SOAR for Youth's endeavors are demonstrated in the testimonials of the participants. The youth learn to open up. They laugh and have fun. They build lasting friendships. They grow academically. And they gain a positive outlook about their future.

~~The benefits of SOAR for Youth's program are exceptionally high relative to the cost~~ because SOAR for Youth has intentionally and successfully kept its operating costs to a minimum. With a large pool of committed volunteers and no paid-employees, and by leveraging community resources to the maximum, 90 cents of every dollar spent in 2010 directly benefited the participating youth, all with no cost to the youth or their guardians.

II. Long-term Goals

Through summer residential academic enrichment programs, counseling, outdoor adventure camps, collaboration with the University of California at Berkeley, community foster youth organizations, and Bay Area children service agencies, we aim to make a life long impact on the foster youth we serve. Our organizational goals are to:

- Offer opportunities for foster youth to grow in mind, body, and emotional intelligence.
- Help foster youth realize their full potential.
- Enable foster youth to contribute and succeed in our society.
- Make a difference in the lives of youth we serve by giving them hope and confidence in their future.
