AMENDED AND RESTATED
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
THE RISEN SON FOUNDATION
a California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

The undersigned hereby certify that:

I. They are the President and Secretary, respectively, of THE RISEN SON FOUNDATION, a California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation (the "Corporation").

II The Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation are amended and restated to read as follows:

I.

NAME

The name of this corporation is Risen Project.

II.

PURPOSE

A. This corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable and public purposes.

B. This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious and public purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The specific purpose of this corporation shall be to receive, acquire, hold, manage, administer and expend property and funds in furtherance of the aforesaid purposes, as the board of directors of this corporation shall from time to time determine, including, but not limited to, the distribution and dissemination of religious and educational materials dedicated to creating a more peaceful and tolerant world; and to assist and support, within the discretion of the board of directors, institutions, organizations, associations, trusts, governmental entities and undertakings organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

III.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The affairs of the corporation shall be under the direction of a board of directors. The number, terms of office, manner of election or appointment and qualifications of the directors shall be as set forth in the bylaws of the corporation

IV.

TAX-EXEMPT STATUS

A. This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious and public purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

B. This corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits or dividends to any members thereof or to any private shareholder, as defined for purposes of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any individual.

C. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of lobbying or carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements in) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation, and the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code

V.

IRREVOCABLE DEDICATION OF PROPERTY

A. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable, educational, religious and public purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof

B. Upon the dissolution and winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts, obligations and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or public purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

VI.

ELIMINATION OF LIABILITY

The liability of the directors of the corporation for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California law

INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation is authorized to provide indemnification of agents (as defined in Section 5238 of the California Corporations Code) for breach of duty to the corporation through bylaw provisions or through agreements with agents, or both, to the extent permitted by Section 5238 of the California Corporations Code.

VIII.

INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

All references in these articles to sections of the Internal Revenue Code shall be considered references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended, and to the corresponding sections of any future federal tax code.

3. The foregoing amendment and restatement of Articles of Incorporation has been duly approved by the Corporation's board of directors

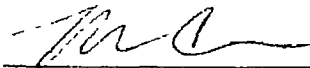

4. The Corporation has no members

We further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the matters set forth in this certificate are true and correct of their own knowledge.

THE RISEN SON FOUNDATION
A California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

Adopted April 1, 2010

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this corporation is The Risen Son Foundation, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation.

ARTICLE II

OFFICES

Section 1 Principal Office. The principal office for the transaction of the activities and affairs of the corporation ("principal executive office") is located at 9171 Towne Centre Drive, Suite 460, San Diego, California 92122. The board of directors may from time to time change the principal executive office from one location to another. Any change of this location shall be noted by the secretary in these Bylaws opposite this Section, or this Section may be amended to state the new location.

Section 2 Other Offices. The board of directors may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places where the corporation is qualified to conduct its activities.

ARTICLE III

OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSES

The purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:

Section 1 General Purposes. This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law (the "Code"). Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation, and the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (ii) by a corporation defined in Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

Section 2 Specific Purposes. Within the context of the general purposes stated above, this corporation has been formed for the following specific purposes:

(a) To receive, acquire, hold, manage, administer and expend property and funds in furtherance of the corporation's charitable, educational, religious and public purposes, as the board of directors shall from time to time determine, and to assist and support, within the discretion of the board of directors, institutions, organizations, associations, trusts, governmental entities and undertakings which are described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code.

(b) To act as trustee under charitable and public benefit trusts, receiving, holding, managing, administering and expending property and funds in accordance with the respective trusts upon which the property and funds are acquired and held.

(c) To receive, hold, manage, administer and expend property and funds upon the general and charitable trust that the property and funds, either as to principal or income or both, shall be applied to the assistance and support of such charitable or public institutions or objects, at such times, and to such extent, as the corporation may in its judgment deem most conducive to the public welfare.

(d) To take property and funds by will, gift or otherwise, with or without specification of any charitable or public purpose; but if no charitable or educational purpose is specified, the property or funds so received shall, nevertheless, be held upon the trust that they shall be used for charitable or educational purposes.

(e) To hold, in its own name and right, real and personal property of every nature and description without limitation as to extent, character or amount, and with all the powers of control, management, investment, change and disposal incident to the absolute ownership of property or funds by a private person, subject only to the terms of a particular trust and to the general trust that all its properties and funds shall be held for charitable and public purposes.

(f) To establish one or more common trust funds for the purpose of furnishing investments to this corporation or to any beneficial, charitable or public institution affiliated with it, or to any organization, society or corporation holding funds or property for the benefit of any of the foregoing, or holding funds for the purpose of supporting any building or buildings used by or owned by any of the foregoing, whether holding such funds or property as fiduciary or otherwise.

(g) To purchase or otherwise acquire, own, hold, sell, assign, transfer or otherwise dispose of, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise hypothecate or encumber, and to deal in and with shares, notes, bonds, debentures, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness of any person, firm, corporation, or association and, while the owner or holder thereof, to execute all rights, powers, and privileges of ownership.

(h) To borrow money, either upon or without security, and to issue promissory notes or other evidences of indebtedness and pledges, mortgages or other instruments of hypothecation.

(i) To appoint and pay officers and agents to conduct and administer the affairs of this corporation, but no member of the board of directors shall receive any compensation therefor.

(j) To adopt bylaws prescribing the duties of the officers and agents of this corporation, the detail of its organization, the time and manner of its meetings, and any and all details incident to its organization and the efficient conduct and management of its affairs.

(k) To do any and all things which a natural person may do that are necessary or desirable for the purposes for which the corporation is organized, and to carry into effect any one or more of the aforementioned objects and purposes set forth and to that end to do any one or more of the acts and things aforesaid, and likewise any and all acts or things necessary or incidental thereto; and, in conducting or carrying on its activities, and for the purpose of promoting or furthering any one or more of said objects or purposes, to exercise any or all of the powers set forth in this Article III, and any other or additional power now or hereafter authorized by law either alone or in conjunction with others as principal, agent or otherwise.

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of both purposes and powers, and the purposes and powers in each clause shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms or provisions of any other clause but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

Section 3 Limitations. If, and so long as, the corporation constitutes a Private Foundation within the meaning of Section 508(e) of the Code:

(a) The corporation will distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Code.

(b) The corporation will not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code.

(c) The corporation will not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code.

(d) The corporation will not make any investments in such a manner as to subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code.

(e) The corporation will not make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code.

ARTICLE IV

NONPARTISAN ACTIVITIES

This corporation has been formed under the California Nonprofit Corporation Law for the purposes described in Article III hereof, and it shall be nonprofit and nonpartisan. No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of lobbying or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as provided in Section 501(h) of the Code, and this corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. This corporation shall not provide support or monetary contributions to political candidates or political propositions or initiatives.

ARTICLE V

DEDICATION OF ASSETS

All corporate property is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes described in Article III hereof. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any of its directors, officers, trustees, private shareholders or members, or to individuals. On the winding up and dissolution of this corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation, the remaining assets of this corporation shall be distributed to such organization (or organizations) organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, fostering national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, which has established its tax-exempt status under (i) Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and (ii) Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended.

ARTICLE VI

CORPORATION WITHOUT MEMBERS

Until such time as these Bylaws are amended to provide for membership, this corporation shall have no members within the meaning of Section 5056 of the California Corporations Code. Any action for which there is no specific provision in the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law applicable to a corporation which has no members and which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members or approval by the members shall require only approval of the board of directors. All rights which would otherwise vest in the members shall vest in the directors, except for the right to designate directors as provided in Section 5 of Article VII.

ARTICLE VII

DIRECTORS

Section 1 General Powers. Subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the business, activities and affairs of the corporation shall be conducted and managed, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the board of directors. The board of directors may delegate the management of the activities of the corporation to any person or persons, to a management company, or to committees pursuant to Article IX hereof, provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the board of directors, and shall at all times be in compliance with the corporation's Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws.

Section 2 Specific Powers. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations described in Section 1 of this Article VII, it is hereby expressly declared that the board of directors shall have the following powers in addition to the other powers enumerated in these Bylaws:

(a) To select and remove any and all officers, agents and employees of the corporation; prescribe any powers and duties for them that are consistent with law, the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws; and fix their compensation;

(b) To change the principal executive office or the principal business office in the State of California from one location to another, cause the corporation to be qualified to do business in any other State, territory, dependency or country, and conduct business within or outside the State of California;

(c) To conduct, manage, and control the affairs and activities of the corporation and to make such rules and regulations therefor consistent with the law, the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws;

(d) To adopt, make and use a corporate seal and to alter the form of such seal from time to time as the directors may deem best; and

(e) To borrow money and incur indebtedness on behalf of the corporation and cause to be executed and delivered for the corporation's purposes, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations and other evidences of debt and securities.

(f) To make grants and contributions in furtherance of the corporation's purposes and otherwise render financial assistance to any organization organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific or education purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code; provided, however, that the directors shall

(i) review all requests for funds from other organizations and require that such requests specify the use to which the funds will be put, and, if the board of directors approves such request, the board of directors shall authorize payment of such funds to the approved grantee;

(ii) require that the grantees furnish a periodic accounting to show that the funds were expended for the purposes which were approved by the board of directors; and

(iii) retain, to the extent practicable, the ability to withdraw or revoke an approved grant or contribution, if necessary, to insure that such funds will be used in furtherance of the corporation's charitable and educational purposes.

Section 3 Number of Directors. The board of directors shall consist of at least two (2) but no more than five (5) directors until changed by a duly adopted amendment to these Bylaws. The exact number of authorized directors within the minimum and maximum limitations specified in the preceding sentence shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the entire board of directors or by unanimous written consent by all the directors.

Section 4 Restriction on Interested Directors. No more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving on the board of directors at any time may be interested persons. An interested person is defined as: (i) any person being compensated by the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full-time or part-time officer, employee, independent contractor or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a director as a director; and (ii) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person described in the preceding clause (i). Reimbursement of expenses of a director incurred on behalf of the corporation and authorized by the board of directors (in advance, if possible), shall not be considered compensation as the term is used in this Section 4. Any violation of the provisions of this Section 4 shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the corporation.

Section 5 Designation of Directors and Term of Office. The initial directors shall be appointed by the incorporator, and thereafter shall be designated and appointed by the board of directors. The election of directors shall take place at a regular or special meeting of the board of directors. Directors shall be elected or appointed for two-(2) year terms. Each director shall hold office until reelection or until a successor has been elected or appointed and qualified. Directors shall be eligible for reelection without limitation on the number of terms they may serve.

Section 6 Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors caused by death, resignation, removal, an increase in the authorized number of directors, or any other cause, shall be filled by designation and appointment as provided in Section 5 of this Article VII. Each director so appointed, designated, selected, or elected (as the case may be) shall continue in office for the unexpired term of the director whom he or she succeeded and until a successor has been qualified and elected. No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director before the director's term of office expires.

Section 7 Removal. The board of directors may remove and declare vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, or convicted of a felony, or been found by a final order or judgment of any court to have breached a duty of the corporation as provided in the California Nonprofit Corporation Law. In addition, a majority vote of the board of directors may, at a regular or special meeting of the board of directors, remove any director from office with or without cause, and a majority vote of the board of directors may declare vacant the office of a director who misses three (3) consecutive meetings of the board of directors.

Section 8 Resignations. Except as provided in this Section and subject to the provisions of Section 5226 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, any director may resign, which resignation shall be effective upon giving written notice to the chairman of the board of directors, the president, the secretary, or the board of directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the resignation to become effective. If the resignation of a director is effective at a future time, a successor may be designated, selected, or elected (as the case may be) before such time, to take office as of the date when the resignation becomes effective. No director may resign when the corporation would then be left without a duly elected director in charge of its affairs.

Section 9 Meetings.

(a) Place of Meeting. Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at any place within or without the State of California which has been designated from time to time by the board of directors. In the absence of such designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal executive office of the corporation.

(b) Regular Meetings. The board of directors shall hold regular annual meetings for the purpose of organization, selection of directors and officers, and the transaction of other business, on such date and at such time as the board of directors shall fix by resolution.

(c) Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairman of the board of directors, the president, or any two (2) directors. Special meetings of the board of directors shall be convened within ten (10) days' notice given personally or by telephone, telegraph, facsimile, telex, or other similar means of communication, to all directors. The notice must clearly specify the business desired to be considered or transacted at such special meeting. Any such notice shall be addressed or delivered to each director at such director's address as it is shown upon the records of the corporation or as may have been given to the corporation by the director for purposes of notice or, if such address is not shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. Written notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient or is actually transmitted to the recipient in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws. Oral Notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is communicated, in person or by telephone or wireless, to the recipient or to a person at the office of the recipient who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the receiver.

Section 10 Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the board of directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if (i) a quorum is present, and (ii) either before or after the meeting, each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice, a consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes. The waiver of notice of consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed given to any director who attends the meeting without protesting before or at its commencement about the lack of adequate notice.

Section 11 Quorum. A majority of the authorized number of directors shall constitute a quorum, which shall be required for the transaction of any business at any meeting of the board of directors, except to adjourn as provided in Section 12 of this Article VII. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the board of directors, subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law or the Articles of Incorporation. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 12 Adjournment. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time or place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place is fixed at the meeting adjourned, except as provided in the next sentence. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

Section 13 Proxies. Proxies are prohibited at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors for any director entitled to vote who is not present.

Section 14 Action Without Meeting by Written Consent. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the board of directors, individually or collectively, consent in writing to that action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as an unanimous vote of the board of directors. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board of directors.

Section 15 Participation in Meeting by Conference Telephone. Members of the board of directors may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all directors participating in such meeting can hear one another.

Section 16 Reimbursements of Directors. Directors and members of committees may receive such reimbursement of expenses as may be determined by the board of directors to be just and reasonable and in compliance with applicable tax law for a corporation qualifying under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and Section 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended.

Section 17 Rights of Inspection. Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records, and documents of every kind pertaining to the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII

OFFICERS

Section 1 Election and Tenure. The corporation must have either a president or chairman of the board of directors, and a secretary and a chief financial officer. The corporation may also have, at the discretion of the board of directors, such other officers with such titles and duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors or the Bylaws. The officers of the corporation, except such officers as may be elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 or Section 5 of this Article VIII, shall be chosen annually by, and shall serve at the pleasure of, the board of directors, and shall hold their respective offices until their resignation, removal, or other disqualification from service, or until their respective successors shall be elected. Any number of offices may be held by the same person, except as provided in the Articles of Incorporation or in these Bylaws and except that neither the secretary nor the chief financial officer may serve concurrently as the president or chairman of the board of directors. Officers may receive such reimbursement of expenses as may be determined by the board of directors (ideally in advance) to be just and reasonable and in compliance with applicable tax law for a corporation qualifying under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and Section 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended.

Section 2 Removal and Resignations. Subject to the rights, if any, of any officer under any written contract of employment, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by a majority vote of the board of directors at any time. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the corporation, but without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 3 Duties and Powers of Officers.

(a) Chairman of the Board of Directors. The board of directors may elect a chairman of the board of directors, who shall preside, if present, at meetings of the board of directors, and who shall exercise and perform such other powers and duties as may be assigned from time to time by the board of directors. If there is no president, the chairman of the board of directors shall, in addition, be the chief executive officer of the corporation and shall have the powers and duties as set forth in Subsection (b) below.

(b) President. Except to the extent that the Bylaws or the board of directors assign specific powers and duties to the chairman of the board of directors (if any), the president shall be the corporation's general manager and chief executive officer and, subject to the control of the board of directors, shall have general supervision, direction, and control over the corporation's business and its officers. The managerial powers and duties of the president shall include, but are not limited to, all the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of president of a corporation. The president shall also be an ex-officio member of all committees and shall have such other powers and duties as prescribed by the board of directors.

or the Bylaws. In the absence of the chairman of the board of directors or if there is no chairman of the board of directors, the president shall preside at meetings of the board of directors.

(c) Secretary. The secretary shall attend to the following:

(i) Book of Minutes. The secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal executive office or such other place as the board of directors may direct, a book of the minutes of all meetings and actions of the board of directors and of committees of the directors, with the time and place of holding meetings, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present at such meetings and the proceedings of such meetings.

(ii) Notices and Other Duties. The secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the board of directors required by the Bylaws to be given. The secretary shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors or the Bylaws.

(d) Chief Financial Officer. The chief financial officer shall attend to the following:

(i) Books of Account. The chief financial officer shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct books and records of accounts of the funds, finances and business transactions of the corporation, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, losses, capital, retained earnings and other matters customarily included in financial statements. The books of account shall be open to inspection by any director at all reasonable times.

(ii) Deposit and Disbursement of Money and Valuables. The chief financial officer shall deposit, or direct the depositing of, all money and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the board of directors, and shall disburse, or arrange for the disbursement of, the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the board of directors, and shall, whenever requested by the president or directors, prepare, or arrange for the preparation of, an account of all of his transactions as chief financial officer and of the financial condition of the corporation and shall have other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors or the Bylaws.

Section 4 Subordinate Officers. The board of directors may appoint, or may empower the president or another officer to appoint such other officers as the business of the corporation may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as are provided in these Bylaws or as the board of directors may from time to time determine

Section 5 Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these Bylaws for regular election or appointment to such office, provided that such vacancies shall be filled as they occur and not on an annual basis

ARTICLE IX
COMMITTEES

Section 1 Committees of Directors Empowered with Authority of the Board of Directors. The board of directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, designate one or more committees, each consisting of two or more directors, to serve at the pleasure of the board of directors. Any such committee, to the extent expressly provided in the resolution of the board of directors, shall have all the authority of the board of directors, except that no such committee may:

(a) Fill vacancies on the board of directors or in any committee which has the authority of the board of directors;

(b) Amend or repeal Bylaws or adopt new Bylaws;

(c) Amend or repeal any resolution of the board of directors which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable;

(d) Appoint any other committees of the board of directors or the members of these committees;

(e) Approve any self-dealing transaction, as such transactions are defined in Section 5233(a) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law; or approve any transaction (i) to which the corporation is a party and one or more directors have a material financial interest; or (ii) between the corporation and one or more of its directors or between the corporation and any entity in which one or more of its directors have a material financial interest. The words "material financial interest" as used in this Section do not include funds contributed to the corporation by a director for use by the corporation for its charitable purposes.

Section 2 Meetings and Action of Committees. The provisions of this Section 2 of this Article IX apply only to those types of committees created under the provisions of Section 1 of the Article IX, and do not apply to those types of committees created under the provisions of Section 4 of this Article IX. Meetings and action of committees shall be governed by, held and taken in accordance with the provisions of Article VII of these Bylaws, concerning meetings of directors, with such changes in the context of those provisions as are necessary to substitute the committee and its members for the board of directors and its members, except that the time for regular meetings of committees may be determined either by resolution of the board of directors or by resolution of the committee. Special meetings of committees may also be called by resolution of the board of directors. Notice of special meetings of committees shall also be given to any and all alternate members, who shall have the right to attend all meetings of the committee. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of any committee and shall be filed with the corporate records. The board of directors may adopt rules for the government of any committee not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws.

Section 3 The Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, to the extent convened from time to time by the board of directors, shall have the following members, organization and authority:

(a) Members. The Executive Committee shall consist of the following members: the chairman of the board of directors (if any), the president, and a member of the board of directors selected by a majority of the board of directors.

(b) Chairman. The chairman of the board of directors shall serve as the chairman of the Executive Committee. If there is no chairman of the board of directors, the president shall serve as the chairman of the Executive Committee.

(c) Terms. The members of the Executive Committee shall be appointed for a one (1) year term, except for the ex-officio members (the chairman of the board of directors and the president) who shall serve so long as they hold those positions.

(d) Authority. The board of directors hereby delegates to the Executive Committee all of the powers and authority of the board of directors to manage the business and affairs of the association, except for those powers which cannot be delegated pursuant to Section 5212(a) of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law. Provided, however, that the Executive Committee shall not have authority to sell all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation or make significant change in the nature of the business of the corporation, or to take any action described in Section 1 of this Article IX.

Section 4 Standing and Special Committees. The president or the board of directors may appoint such standing and special committees as the president or the board of directors may designate. The members of such committees shall not be directors, and neither such committees nor their members shall have any authority or powers of the board of directors. Standing and Special committees shall act strictly in an advisory capacity to the president and the board of directors in furtherance of the corporation's charitable and public purposes.

Section 5 Audit Committee. So long as the corporation is subject to Cal. Govt. Code Section 12586(e) (i.e., gross revenue of $2,000,000 or more, exclusive of grants from, and contracts for services with, governmental entities for which the governmental entity requires an accounting of the funds received), the board or directors shall designate, at or within a reasonable time after the annual meeting of the board of directors an Audit Committee (within the meaning of Cal. Govt. Code Section 12586(e)(2)), which, subject to the supervision of the board of directors, shall:

(a) Composition of Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall have at least one or more members, and may include persons who are not members of the board of directors, but the member or members of the audit committee shall not include any members of the staff of the corporation (whether paid staff or volunteer staff), including the president or treasurer. If the corporation has a finance committee, it shall be separate from the Audit Committee. Members of the finance committee may serve on the Audit Committee; however, the chairperson of the Audit Committee may not be a member of the finance committee and members of the finance committee shall constitute less than one-half of the membership of the Audit Committee. Members of the Audit Committee shall not receive any compensation from the corporation in excess of the compensation, if any, received by members of the board of directors for service on the board of directors and shall not have a material financial interest in any entity doing business with the Corporation.

(b) Recommend Independent Auditor. The Audit Committee shall recommend the firm to be employed as the corporation's independent auditor to conduct an independent audit in conformance with generally accepted auditing standards, and shall review and approve the discharge of any such firm. The Audit Committee shall also review and approve the independent auditor's compensation, the terms of its engagement by the corporation and the independence of such auditor.

(c) Review Independent Audit. The Audit Committee shall review, in consultation with the independent auditor, the results of each independent audit of the corporation, the report of the auditor, any related management letter, and management's responses to recommendations made by the independent auditor in connection with the audit.

(d) Review Annual Financial Statements. The Audit Committee, in consultation with the independent auditor and management, shall review the corporation's annual financial statements, any report or opinion rendered by the independent auditor in connection with those financial statements, and any dispute between management and the independent auditor that arises in connection with the preparation of those financial statements. The Audit Committee shall review and report to the board of directors with respect to the financial portions of the corporation's annual report.

(e) Review Financial Statements. The Audit Committee shall review before or after publication, the corporation's financial statements.

(f) Plan External Audits. The Audit Committee shall consider, in consultation with the independent auditor, the necessity for, scope and plan of forthcoming external audits.

(g) Evaluate Internal Accounting Controls. The Audit Committee shall consider, in consultation with the independent auditor and chief internal auditor, if any, the adequacy of the corporation's internal accounting controls.

(h) Evaluate Accounting Principles and Practices. The Audit Committee shall consider, when presented by the independent auditor or otherwise, material questions of choice with respect to the choice of appropriate accounting principles and practices to be used in the preparation of the corporation's financial statements.

(i) Compliance With Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics. The Audit Committee shall review the expense accounts and perquisites of officers and senior staff and the Corporation's compliance with its conflict of interest policy and code of ethical conduct, except as such function may be delegated by the board of directors to another committee.

(j) Consider Other Financial Matters. The Audit Committee shall have the power to inquire into any financial matters in addition to those set forth in this Section 5.

(k) Perform Other Assignments. The Audit Committee shall perform such other functions as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors, the Bylaws or the president

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND OTHER AGENTS

Section 1 Definitions. For the purposes of this Article X:

(a) “Agent” means any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or other agent of this corporation, or is or was serving at the request of this corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or was a director, officer, employee or agent of a foreign or domestic corporation that was a predecessor corporation of this corporation or of another enterprise at the request of the predecessor corporation;

(b) “Proceeding” means any threatened, pending or completed action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative; and

(c) “Expenses” includes, without limitation, all attorneys’ fees, costs and any other expenses incurred in the defense of any claims or proceedings against an agent by reason of his position or relationship as agent and all attorneys’ fees, costs and other expenses incurred in establishing a right to indemnification under this Article X.

Section 2 Successful Defense by Agent. To the extent that an agent of this corporation has been successful on the merits in the defense of any proceeding referred to in this Article X, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the agent shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection with the claim. If an agent either settles any such claim or sustains a judgment rendered against him, then the provisions of Sections 3 through 5 of this Article X shall determine whether the agent is entitled to indemnification.

Section 3 Actions Brought by Persons Other than the Corporation. Subject to the required findings to be made pursuant to Section 5 below, this corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any proceeding other than an action brought by, or on behalf of, this corporation, or by an officer, director or person granted related status by the Attorney General, or by the Attorney General on the ground that the defendant director was or is engaging in self-dealing within the meaning of California Corporations Code Section 5233, or by the Attorney General or a person granted related status by the Attorney General for any breach of duty relating to assets held in charitable trust, by reason of the fact that such person is or was an agent of this corporation, for all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the proceeding.

Section 4 Actions Brought by or on Behalf of the Corporation or by the Attorney General of the State of California.

(a) Claims Settled Out of Court. If any agent settles or otherwise disposes of a threatened or pending action brought by or on behalf of this corporation, or by the Attorney General of the State of California, with or without court approval, the agent shall receive no indemnification for either amounts paid pursuant to the terms of the settlement or other disposition or for any expenses incurred in defending against the proceeding, unless it is settled with the approval of the Attorney General.

(b) Claims and Suits Awarded Against Agent. The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action brought by or on behalf of this corporation by reason of the fact that the person is or was an agent of this corporation, for all expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of that action, provided that both of the following are met:

(i) The determination of good faith conduct required by Section 5 below, must be made in the manner provided for in that Section; and

(ii) Upon application, the court in which the action was brought must determine that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, the agent should be entitled to indemnity for the expenses incurred. If the agent is found to be so entitled, the court shall determine the appropriate amount of expenses to be reimbursed.

Section 5 Determination of Agent's Good Faith Conduct. The indemnification granted to an agent in Sections 3 and 4 above, is conditioned on the following:

(a) Required Standard of Conduct for Actions Brought by Persons Other than the Corporation. For actions brought by persons other than the corporation, the agent seeking reimbursement must be found, in the manner provided below, to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith or in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in the best interest of this corporation or that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. In the case of a criminal proceeding, the person must have had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(b) Required Standard of Conduct for Actions Brought by or on Behalf of the Corporation or by the Attorney General of the State of California. For actions brought by or on behalf of the corporation or by the Attorney General of the State of California, the agent seeking reimbursement must be found, in the manner provided below, to have acted in good faith, in a manner he believed to be in the best interest of this corporation, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use in similar circumstances.

(c) Manner of Determination of Good Faith Conduct. The determination that the agent did act in a manner complying with subsection (a) or (b) above, whichever is applicable, shall be made by:

(i) The board of directors, by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to the proceeding; or

(ii) The court in which the proceeding is or was pending. Such determination may be made on application brought by this corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering a defense to the agent, whether or not the application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by this corporation.

Section 6 Limitation on Certain Forms of Indemnification. No indemnification or advance shall be made under this Article X, except as provided in Section 2 or Section 5(b)(2) as it applies to Section 3 above, in any circumstance when it appears:

(a) That the indemnification or advance would be inconsistent with a provision of the Articles of Incorporation or an agreement in effect at the time of the accrual of the alleged cause of action asserted in the proceeding in which the expenses were incurred or other amounts were paid, which prohibits or otherwise limits indemnification; or

(b) That the indemnification would be inconsistent with any condition expressly imposed by a court in approving a settlement.

Section 7 Advance of Expenses. Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by this corporation before the final disposition of the proceeding on receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the agent to repay the amount of the advance unless it is determined ultimately that the agent is entitled to be indemnified as authorized under this Article X.

Section 8 Contractual Rights of Non-directors and Non-officers. Nothing contained in this Article X shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than directors and officers of this corporation, or any subsidiary hereof, may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

Section 9 Insurance. The board of directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation against any liability other than for violating provisions against self-dealing asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not this corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the provisions of this Article X; provided, however, that a corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any agent of the corporation for a violation of Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

ARTICLE XI

RECORDS AND REPORTS

Section 1 Maintenance of Corporate Records. The corporation shall keep:

- (a) Adequate and correct books and records of account;
- (b) Minutes in written form of the proceedings of its board of directors and committees of the board of directors. All such records shall be kept at the corporation's principal executive office

Section 2 Inspection by Directors. Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records and documents of every kind and the physical properties of the corporation and each of its subsidiaries, if any. This inspection by a director may be made in person or by an agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents.

Section 3 Annual Report to Directors. The board of directors shall cause an annual report to be sent to all directors of this corporation. Such report shall contain the following information in reasonable detail:

- (a) The assets and liabilities, including the trust funds, of the corporation as of the end of the fiscal year;
- (b) The principal changes in assets and liabilities, including trust funds, during the fiscal year;
- (c) The revenue or receipts of the corporation, both unrestricted and restricted to particular purposes, for the fiscal year;
- (d) The expenses or disbursements of the corporation, for both general and restricted purposes, during the fiscal year; and
- (e) Any information required by Section 4 of this Article XI.

Section 4 Annual Statement of Certain Transactions and Indemnifications. No later than the time the corporation gives its annual report to the directors, and in any event no later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of the corporation's fiscal year, the corporation shall furnish to its directors a statement of the amount and circumstances of any transaction or indemnification of the following kind.

- (a) Any transactions during the fiscal year in which the corporation or its subsidiary was a party, and in which any director or officer of the corporation or its subsidiaries had a direct or indirect financial interest (a mere common directorship shall not be considered such an interest and contributions by a director or officer to the corporation for its charitable purposes shall not be considered such an interest), if such transaction involved more than $50,000, or was one of a number of transactions with the same person which in the aggregate involved more than $50,000; and

(b) Any indemnifications or advances aggregating more than $10,000 paid during the fiscal year to any director or officer of the corporation pursuant to Article X hereof, unless such indemnification has already been approved by the board of directors.

ARTICLE XII

OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 1 Endorsement of Documents; Contracts. Subject to the provisions of applicable law, any note, mortgage, evidence of indebtedness, contract, conveyance, or other instrument in writing and any assignment or endorsement thereof executed or entered into between the corporation and any other person, when signed by the chairman of the board of directors, the president, or any vice president and the secretary, any assistant secretary, the treasurer, or any assistant treasurer of the corporation shall be valid and binding on the corporation in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officers had no authority to execute the same. Any such instruments may be signed by any other person or persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by the board of directors, and, unless so authorized by the board of directors, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or amount.

Section 2 Construction and Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction and definitions in the California Nonprofit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the above, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term "person" includes both a corporation and a natural person.

ARTICLE XIII

AMENDMENTS

The board of directors may by majority vote amend the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation and these Bylaws to include or omit any provision that could lawfully be included or omitted at the time such amendment or restatement is adopted; provided, however, that any amendment to Sections 3, 5, or 6 of Article VII shall require the unanimous consent of the directors. Subject to the preceding sentence, any number of amendments, or an entire revision or restatement of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, either (i) may be submitted and voted upon at a single meeting of the board of directors and be adopted at such meeting, a quorum being present, upon receiving the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3rds) of the total number of authorized directors of this corporation, or (ii) may be adopted, in accordance with Section 14 of Article VII hereof, by a writing signed by all of the directors of this corporation.

[CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY FOLLOWS ON PAGE 19]

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY

I, the undersigned, do hereby certify:

1. That I am the Secretary of The Risen Son Foundation (the "Foundation").
2. That the foregoing Amended and Restated Bylaws constitute the Bylaws of the Association as duly adopted by the Board of Directors of the Association on April 1, 2010 at San Diego, California.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed this Certificate of Secretary this 1st day of April, 2010 at San Diego, California.
