Part V, 4a - Technically the church did not have a foreign bank account during 2010 - funds were collected for the last weeks of the year and deposited into Emirates NBD Bank in early January 2011 - However, even then technically the account is not in the name of the church UAE does not allow business bank accounts, so the account is in the name an elder - Glen Jones - an Australian. Even though the account is in his name , it is under the control of the church and is treated as a church asset.

Part VI, Section B, 11b - a board member and CPA prepares the form 990. It is reviewed and signed by the Presiding Elder - the other elders are offered the opportunity to review it as well

Part VI, Section B, 12c - The board of elders is very involved in the ongoing operations and financial management of the church and a result it is continually aware of transactions that potentially could be a conflict-of-interest.

Part VI, Section B, 15a - Elders who are not paid by the church review and approve staff elder's compensation after considering other similar compensation models in similar churches - after talking into account the cost of living in Dubai.

Part VI, Section C, 19

The governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available upon request.

Part VII, Section A, 1a
