the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for fiscal year 2010 and 2009. The organization files its forms 990 in the US federal jurisdiction and the office of the state's attorney general for the State of Hawaii. The organization is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before 2007.
