FIN 48	Part D	Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - The Organization has evaluated the tax positions it has taken, or expects to take, in the course of preparing the Organization's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained by the applicable taxing authority Generally accepted accounting principles require the benefit arising from the uncertain tax position to be recognized in the financial statements only when it is "more-likely-than-not" the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based upon the technical merits and consideration of all available information Once the recognition threshold is met, theportion of the tax benefit that is recorded represents the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely to be realized upon settlement with a taxing authority Based on its review, management does not believe the Organization has taken any material uncertain tax positions, including any position that would place the Organization's exempt status in jeopardy as of December 31, 2010 and 2009 The federal returns of the Organization for 2007, 2008, and 2009 are subject to examination by the taxing authority, generally for three years after the due date
