Simon Kenton Pathfinders' primary purpose is to build and maintain a multi-use trail and to provide trailside amenities for the multi-use trail which links Champaign County, OH to the Ohio & Erie Trail.

Part III 28. Statement 2

Through financial support of the Champaign County community in the form of donations, regular trail maintenance occurs including mowing, clearing and making minor repairs. The maintenance efforts of the Simon Kenton Pathfinders assists both the Champaign County and City of Urbana governments. Monies are also being raised for long term maintenance, which will include additional sealcoating and eventual replacement of the approximate 10 miles of paved trail that directly links over 50% of the City of Urbana. An estimated 150,000 people use the trail annually providing a safe travel alternative and an added healthy lifestyle benefit. It is now possible to travel by trail from Urbana to Cincinnati, Ohio. In past years, a variety of fundraising events were conducted in order to raise monies needed to assist the City of Urbana with the purchase and renovation of a former railroad depot to provide trailside restrooms, rest area and parking for the public. The funds were also raised to assist both Champaign County and City of Urbana with the maintenance of the established trail. An estimated 150,000 people use this trail annually.

The fundraising events that were conducted also raised monies to continue assisting the City of Urbana with the renovation of a former railroad depot to provide trailside restrooms, rest areas, bike lockers and parking for the public.

Volunteers have begun the planning and fundraising for an extension of the multi-use trail northward, eventually adding an additional 18 miles. This would provide access to two additional communities, their businesses, schools and points of interest.
