2b Applications for grants are not required to be in any particular form. Each application, however, must contain the following information:

- A brief overview of the organization, including biographical information on all directors and officers;
  - The exact amount of the contribution sought;
  - Specific project information, including;
  - Exact purpose of the desired funds and the amounts to be allocated and applied;
  - Time period of the proposed program;
  - Goals of the program and how these goals will be obtained;
  - How the organization will report and evaluate results;
  - Geographical area of the project and the approximate number of people who will benefit; and
  - How the project meets the Foundation's priorities;
  - Copy of IRS tax exempt documents per §501( c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; and
  - Supporting documents such as annual report, program materials, news clippings, and any other pertinent information the applicant desires to include.

2c The foundation accepts applications through September of each year. The foundation will notify successful applicants within eight (8) weeks of receipt of their proposal if proposal will be funded. The foundation's board of directors decides whether to fund projects on an ongoing basis, based on each proposal's compatibility with the foundation's goals and guidelines, and on the availability of funds from the budget for the current calendar year. .

2d To be considered for a contribution from the foundation, an organization must meet the following requirements:

- Promote one of the foundation's giving priorities;
  - Workplace diversity education and information; or
  - Workplace advocacy for women and minorities; or
  - Recognition of women and minorities who have demonstrated outstanding leadership in their communities;
- Be a national organization with a focus on programs in the United States; and
- Possess tax-exempt or non-profit status from the Internal Revenue Service, and be able to provide all necessary documentation evidencing such status.
