Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Our primary purpose is the study/research of America's public policy, including research on public policy issues and provide information to the public on the importance of such issues, including energy, education, taxes, crime, transportation, natural resources, and the environment.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Policy Issues Institute's accomplishments included publishing papers, newsletters and websites that collect and disseminate information on a wide variety of public and business individuals, public policy issues, media issues and encouraging citizen involvement in public affairs. We publish the informative website and daily e-letter www.whitehousewatch.com. Over one million visitors come to our websites every month seeking policy and news information.

The organization has also:

1. Sponsored the largest conference on conservative education with over 6,000 attendees, of which nearly 3,000 were students.
2. Sponsored a conference on conservative education in the western United States.
3. Promoted and distributed the educational book, "Freeing Wealth" by Floyd Brown, a book which explores ways to fix America's ailing economy.
4. Delivered to public officials over two million petitions calling for increased integrity in government.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

Form 990 is prepared based on accounting records compiled by the Treasurer, and is reviewed by both members of the Board of Directors before issuance. In addition, the financial statements are audited by a CPA firm and the Form 990 financial information agrees with the CPA audit report.
