For over 100 years, Elkhart General Hospital has been providing comprehensive, advanced medical care to Elkhart and surrounding communities. Each year, particular emphasis is placed on making sure everyone in the community receives the health care they need, not necessarily what they can afford. The simple truth is that Elkhart General is often the only source of health care for many of the poor and disadvantaged in our community, and this responsibility is taken very seriously. During 2010, Elkhart General provided more than 19 million in health services that were unreimbursed by Medicaid, and more than 22 million unreimbursed by Medicare. In addition, the Hospital provided community outreach contributions, or nonbilled services, valued at over 1.4 million for free and below-cost community screenings, educational lectures, and support for more than 50 health-related, not-for-profit organizations. The Hospital also furnished more than 4 million in traditional charity care and over 4 million in uninsured discounts to patients.

| Part I line 3c         |                 | The hospital does not specifically use FPG to determine eligibility for financial assistance The hospital uses both an asset test and an income/expense test to determine eligibility for financial assistance, either in whole or in part The asset test consists of the patient or responsible party reporting assets that might be used to make payment to reduce or eliminate the financial obligation to the hospital Typical household assets are never requested to be liquidated                     |
| Part I line 3c         |                 | Assets of a significant, extraordinary nature such as stocks, bonds, retirement savings, other savings, second homes, etc, which are not needed or required to provide normal, ongoing living expenses for the household are excess These assets may be requested to be liquidated and used toward payment of the financial obligation of the hospital                                                                                                                                                       |
| Part I line 3c         |                 | An income/expense test is also used to determine a patients or a responsible partys ability to pay based upon current monthly net income The responsible party is requested to provide information about household income and household expenses Only expenses in excess of a reasonable norm would not be considered when compared with monthly net or spendable income In order to deny financial assistance, ones net income must significantly exceed ones reasonable expenses                           |
| Part I line 3c         |                 | Additionally, while the actual charity care did not exceed budget, charity care will not be denied should charity care exceed budgetary levels                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

This does not represent the total compensation the employee actually received during the year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| II         |                  | Column F (COMPENSATION REPORTED ON PRIOR FORM 990) reflects taxable current year earnings which were reported in a previous year as deferred. This includes such programs as annual bonus accruals accrued in one year and paid in the following year and capital accumulation funds put aside in one year and received by the employee, if vested, in a future year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
