Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

American College of Healthcare Executives incorporated in Cook County, Illinois, in 1934, with the purpose of establishing a standard of excellence in education and training in the hospital and health administration fields. Today, American College of Healthcare Executives is an international professional society of more than 35,000 healthcare executives who lead hospitals, healthcare systems and other healthcare organizations. American College of Healthcare Executives is known for its prestigious FACHE credential, signifying board certification in healthcare management, and its educational programs. In addition, American College of Healthcare Executives is known for its publications, and its career development and research programs. Through such efforts, American College of Healthcare Executives works towards its goal of being the premier professional society for healthcare executives dedicated to improving healthcare delivery.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

The Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE) credential denotes board certification in healthcare management. Earning the distinction of board certification in healthcare management as a FACHE signifies industry expertise, experience, and commitment to continuing education and professional development. Having the FACHE credential indicates a level of achievement in the profession.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

Healthcare Executive is the premier healthcare management periodical in the industry, providing industry leaders with the most current trends that directly affect the daily challenges they face. The magazine focuses on critical industry topics, best practices and management advice, strategies, and real-world solutions for meeting evolving challenges.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 0 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 0)

American College of Healthcare Executives provides the tools needed to manage the healthcare executive's career by offering workshops covering leadership, management skills and career planning.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	FIN 48 (ASC 740) Footnote	ACHE is a tax-exempt organization under the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(6). ACHE is subject to taxes on unrelated business income, which are generally ACHE's advertising revenues. ACHE had $1,343,213 and $1,165,910 in gross advertising revenues for the years ended December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively. The Company adopted the provision of ASC 740-10-25-6 as of January 1, 2009, which clarified the accounting for uncertainty in tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to financial statement recognition and measurement. This guidance provides that the tax benefits from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the financial statements only if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a tax authority. The assessment of the tax position is based solely on the technical merits of the position, without regard to the likelihood that the tax position may be challenged. The tax years ending 2008, 2009, and 2010 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes. The adoption of ASC 740-10-25-6 did not have any impact on the Company's financial statements.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Schedule R, Part V, Line 2	Transactions with Related Organizations	The following transactions do not constitute unrelated business income for either entity under Section 512(b)(13). Under Rev. Rul. 71-529, income derived from management and administrative services do not constitute unrelated business income. Transaction Type 'C' Gift, Grant, or Capital Contribution from Other Organizations. American College of Healthcare Executives receives contributions from Foundation of American College of Healthcare Executives. Transaction Type 'P' Reimbursement paid by other organizations for expenses. American College of Healthcare Executives allocates costs for shared facilities and equipment to Foundation of the American College of Healthcare Executives. The valuation of such costs is based on actual expense amounts, which are then allocated on a basis consistent with that utilized for shared employees providing support for Foundation of the American College of Healthcare Executives' programs. American College of Healthcare Executives allows Foundation of the American College of Healthcare Executives utilization of the shared services and employees of ACHE. The valuation of those services is based on the time provided by those employees who engage in the activities necessary to support Foundation of the American College of Healthcare Executives' programs. Transaction Type 'Q' Other transfer of cash or property to other organization(s).
