Since the Foundation is consolidated into the National Association of REALTORS®, which is considered a public entity, the Foundation is not permitted to elect for the deferral of the Codification guidance. As such, the Foundation adopted the guidance at their financial reporting level. After analyzing income and expenses reported on federal and state tax returns, management has determined that there are no uncertain tax positions that would materially affect the Foundation's financial position or operating results.

Part XIV Supplemental Information (continued)

Uncertainty in Income Taxes the Foundation adopted guidelines issued by the FASB with respect to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes as of January 1, 2008. A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. The adoption had no effect on the Foundation's financial statements.
