Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

The Christian Service Center (CSC) interviews clients requesting assistance to determine need. In addition, individuals requesting food must meet eligibility requirements based on the household size and gross income as determined by the Food Bank of West Texas. Assistance given to clients is documented in a network shared by other agencies in the community to monitor frequency and amount of aid received. Clients are allowed to return to the CSC for assistance based on policies in place for certain types of assistance (e.g. only once every four months for clothing, once every two months for food, once every six months for household items, etc.)

Part VI, Section B, Line 11 - The treasurer contacts board members by email when the Form 990 is complete and ready for their review. The option is given to review the form in detail prior to the next board meeting. At the first board meeting following the completion of the return, the Form 990 is presented to the board, discussion follows, and a motion is then made and voted upon to approve the return to be submitted to the IRS.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12 - The Organization has adopted a written conflict of interest policy; however, it is still in the process of implementing the policy. Officers, directors and key employees will be required to disclose annually and conflicts of interest and this policy will be enforced and monitored.

Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The personnel subcommittee of the Board of Directors performs an annual review of the Executive Director's job performance and salary. This review includes soliciting a completed performance evaluation from each board member, consideration of budgeted allowance for raises for all employees, and periodic reference to annual salaries of other local non-profits organizations.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - Requests for governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements must be submitted to the Executive Director in writing.
