Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Board members, officers and all employees are required to complete and sign a conflict of interest statement on an annual basis. The responses are initially sent to and reviewed by the Risk Management Group of Shorebank Corporation who then provides a report to the audit committee and legal counsel. Legal counsel provides a report to the president of the organization who shares it with the board of directors. If a conflict exists, the member cannot vote on the issue or may even be released from the board.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	A thorough review of compensation levels for all employees is done every three years with the most recent review being done in 2008. This review includes the use of an independent consultant and other comparability data to determine appropriate ranges for each pay grade and ensures that employees fall within these ranges. The president's compensation is reviewed and approved by the full board on an annual basis. The president reviews and approves compensation of all other employees annually. These procedures are documented by Human Resources.
