Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

parents and their children in need of healing and restoration.

Parenting With Purpose does this by offering two main programs. These programs are Parenting The Future With Purpose and Mentoring For Life Change.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

accomplishes this by providing parent education and support services to families of incarcerated parents; including children, their guardians as well as the incarcerated parent. We believe that just because a parent has committed a crime does not stop them from being a parent or make them a bad parent. However, the incarcerated parent has a strong influence on their children and family. Parenting With Purpose has a plan and is committed to serve as a positive influence in the lives of children affected by a parent's incarceration. Currently, PWP is the only organization in Minnesota who provides services to the entire family affected by parental incarceration. PWP focuses on families in the Twin Cities metro area.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

behavior in home and the schools for the children. Upon release from prison, PFWP also provides transition support services to those moms and dads who desire to be reunited with their children and live in the metro area of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota. In 2010, the following goals and accomplishments were achieved.

(1) 5 children visited their moms in the Minnesota Correctional

(4) 120-parent education classes to 182 men at the Minnesota Correctional Facility (MCF-FRB) in Faribault, Minnesota.

(5) 23 released parents received support services; including home visits, referrals and family support.

Through these support services the following organizational goals were reached:

1. Parenting With Purpose has played an integral part in discontinuing the intergenerational cycle of criminal behavior in 361 families.

2. 85% of the incarcerated parents served rated themselves higher in their parenting skills after they completed their parenting classes.

81% of the parenting program graduates became more involved in their children's school from the prison. 100% of the parents released acquired a job or schooling. 100% of the released parents acquired safe housing and 96% of the released parents remained crime-free.
