▼

1a	The registration fee income which came from 530 registrants in the classes which Adventures in Learning sponsored for senior adults in the community during the Spring and Fall sessions in 2010 made it possible to fulfill the educational purposes identified in Hillside Foundation's articles of incorporation.
3 & 4	The interest and dividend income derived from checking accounts and the investment portfolio made it possible for Hillside Foundation to fulfill the charitable purposes identified in the Foundation's articles of incorporation, including scholarships for students in training for nursing, assistance to cancer patients and their families (through the Willamette Valley Cancer Foundation), capital improvements for YCAP enabling it to serve the community with its Food Bank, etc., financial assistance to the local Salvation Army for food, shelter, transportation, etc. for victims of fire and unemployment, etc. and financial assistance to two low-income residents of a continuing care retirement community in Yamhill County who had difficulty in meeting the costs of their care.
11	The net income from the Foundation's Furniture Exchange program helped to make it possible for the Foundation to fulfill the charitable purposes identified in its articles of incorporation. All proceeds came from the sale of donated items.
