Part 3 #28 During the past year we was able to start three nien churches in the state of Iowa and soon will start supporting a fourth church. The Lifebridge Christian Church is unique because itis a hispanic church that serves the hispanic population in the city.

Freedom Ridge Christian Church was established in a college town and helps students going to college to stay in touch with their faith and allows them to participate in Christian activities. Northwesst Christian Church was started because many people lost their church home when the church moved from downtown to the suburbs. This new church serves those people who can't or choose not to travel a distance to attend church services. These three new churches are 350+ people each week.
