	Albuquerque Hispano Chamber of Commerce	1309 4th Street, SW Albuquerque, NM 87102	85-0358453	HQ Summary: Three-year commitment ($25,000 per year). The Beretas Job Opportunity Center, which will use the funds to provide training to 200 individuals from the Beretas neighborhood (and beyond) into the South Valley. HQ Project Description: The training helps students to prepare for employment, and includes resume workshops, interviewing skills, job search strategies (including Internet searches) and both basic and advanced computer skills. The programs also provide basic training in workforce skills such as customer service, networking and appropriate attire and behavior. The training provides positive impact for the students, the companies that hire them, and through those workers and their employers to the entire community. Request to support the digital literacy component of the Alexandria Seaport Foundation's apprentice program. ASF works with the Virginia Department of Juvenile Justice and the DC Department of Youth Rehabilitation Services to provide training to at-risk youth (grades 5 - 12). Part of the training includes word processing and spreadsheet skills and instruction in digital media and website production. The Comcast grant will enable students to receive video production training from the Arlington Career Center. Students will create, script, stage and record videos on their Seaport experiences. These videos will be uploaded to the Internet. Depending on Comcast staffing, this could be a site for a future Digital Connectors program.	$25,000.00

Additionally, when not in use by the Comcast Digital Connectors program, this will be the only computer lab in the Church that will be available for public use. The computer lab will be located in the Church. Since the church is new, they will convert, with Comcast's funding, one of its new rooms into a computer lab.	$25 000 00
	New Jersey Hall of Fame	4 Ridge Road Lebanon NJ 08833	22-3291935	Each September, the New Jersey Hall of Fame introduces a slate of nominees for public vote to determine who should be inducted. This project will facilitate the development of a detailed teaching unit designed to use this voting opportunity to teach students how to approach their vote thoughtfully and seriously. Students will learn important techniques for analyzing the nominees through on-line research, ferreting out truth from hyperbole and recognizing the importance of an information source. Furthermore, students will refine the decision making skills which go into determining which nominees to support. Once a student decides whom to support, the teaching unit will encourage the development of leadership skills as the students create political campaigns for particular nominees, write speeches to support their candidates and conduct school-wide campaign efforts to sway their fellow students. Many important leadership skills will be developed in this process including persuasive techniques, organizational strategies, speech writing and speech making, debating skills, video production and more. Students will refine their use of technology including computer software programs, on-line research tools, social media and on-line surveys. This project will enable students to develop leadership skills, technical skills, persuasive skills, research skills, decision making skills, writing skills, speaking skills, thinking skills and, most importantly, voting skills.	$25,000 00

Application for Extension of Time To File an Exempt Organization Return

OMB No. 1545-1709

► File a separate application for each return.

- If you are filing for an Automatic 3-Month Extension, complete only Part I and check this box. ☐
 - If you are filing for an Additional (Not Automatic) 3-Month Extension, complete only Part II (on page 2 of this form)
- Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868

Electronic filing (e-file). You can electronically file Form 8868 if you need a 3-month automatic extension of time to file (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T), or an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension of time. You can electronically file Form 8868 to request an extension of time to file any of the forms listed in Part I or Part II with the exception of Form 8870, Information Return for Transfers Associated With Certain Personal Benefit Contracts, which must be sent to the IRS in paper format (see instructions). For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.

Part I Automatic 3-Month Extension of Time. Only submit original (no copies needed).

A corporation required to file Form 990-T and requesting an automatic 6-month extension—check this box and complete Part I only. ☐

All other corporations (including 1120-C filers), partnerships, REMICs, and trusts must use Form 7004 to request an extension of time to file income tax returns.

Type or print File by the due date for filing your return. See instructions.	Name of exempt organization	Employer identification number
	Number, street, and room or suite no. If a P O box, see instructions
	City, town or post office, state, and ZIP code. For a foreign address, see instructions
