Grant applications should be in writing and should specify the nature of the organization requesting the grant, its leadership, the purpose for which the grant would be used, and the tax-exempt status and classification of the applicant organization. The Foundation prefers to initiate its own grant programs and does not seek applications.

Part XV, Line 2-d:

The Foundation does not make grants to individuals. The Foundation makes grants to organizations that are tax-exempt charitable organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and are classified as public charities and are not private foundations as defined in sections 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Grants are made primarily to health care and educational organizations serving the Greater Washington Metropolitan area. The Foundation is not staffed and operates with essentially no administrative costs.
