PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 12C	MONITORING AND ENFORCEMENT OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY	The conflict of interest policy is reviewed annually for BOARD OF DIRECTORS and on an on-going basis for all employees. Each Board of Director and Employee is expected to avoid any action or involvement that would compromise the Association. This includes the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Having a financial interest, or a family member with a financial interest, in an outside concern from which ASHA purchases goods or services. 2) Conducting business on behalf of ASHA with a member of the director's or employee's family or a business organization in which the director or employee or a member of his or her family has a significant interest. In the event a volunteer leader wishes to partake in an activity or association that would create or appear to create a conflict of interest, the volunteer leader must disclose the proposed outside activity or association to the chair of the board or committee. The chair shall decide whether the outside activity or association can be accommodated in such a way that the conflict of interest is avoided without resulting in significant hardship to ASHA. This may include requiring the volunteer leader to recuse himself or herself from making business or policy decisions on behalf of ASHA that are related to or in conflict with the outside activity or association and from recommending or providing input for such decisions. If the chair decides that ASHA is able to make an accommodation that would eliminate a conflict of interest without imposing significant hardship on the organization, and if the volunteer leader is agreeable to it, the volunteer leader may engage in the outside activity or association. In the event that the ASHA president believes he or she has a potential conflict, he or she should disclose the outside activity or association to the immediate past president.
