As explained below, The Foundation maintains discretion and control over funds granted outside the United States. The Foundation requires each grantee to submit a quarterly report. Quarterly reports must show the total amount of funds expended and a financial report, which shows how grant funds were spent. The Foundation reviews each quarterly report to ensure that actual expenses match budget allocations. If there are any unusual variances, the Foundation requires grantees to submit a written report, which describes how grant funds were used over the course of the prior year to support the grantee's participation in the MF program, and to give a presentation at the Foundation's annual symposium. In addition to submitting quarterly reports, grantees are required to submit a final grant request. Upon approving a final grant request, the Foundation maintains a receipt of the disbursement.

Form 990 Part I Summary

1. Continuation: global education through symposium, travel, online activities, project grants and social services.

Form 990 Part VI Governance, Management and Disclosure

Section B. Policies # 11B

A copy of Form 990 and supporting schedules are emailed to the Board of Directors for their review, comments and approval.

Section B. Policies #12C

Each Member of the Board has to complete and sign a Conflict of Interest Questionnaire annually.

Section B. Policies #15A and B

Each voting member of the Board evaluates the Executive Director individually by using a questionnaire developed by a subcommittee of the Board, the Human Resource Committee. The results of the evaluation are discussed at the annual Board meeting. Subsequently, the Chair and Vice-Chair of the Board discuss the results of the evaluation with the Executive Director. The Board then sets the Executive Director's compensation for the next year based on: (1) the Executive Director's performance, as evaluated by the Board, and

(2) the Board's review of compensation data for Executive Directors at comparable organizations as reported in publicly available compensation surveys. The Board's deliberations and decisions concerning the Executive Director's compensation are documented pursuant to the Foundation's policies.

The Executive Director performs annual evaluations of those Foundation employees that report directly to him.

Section C. Disclosure #19

The Foundation makes its financial information available to the public electronically by publishing its Form 990 filing to Guidestar.org each year. The Foundation does not make its governing documents or its conflict of interest policy available to the public, though its Article of Incorporation are available upon request to the Commonwealth of Virginia.
