The Society shall have such offices, within or without the Commonwealth of Virginia, as shall be determined from time to time by the Council.

Article III MISSION AND GOALS

Consistent with the Society's purposes, as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, the mission of the Society is to promote and disseminate multidisciplinary scientific advances in liver transplantation worldwide. The Society has therefore established the following goals in furtherance of its purposes and mission:

- To promote research and other scientific inquiry into questions that relate to the practice of liver transplantation;
- To promote teaching excellence in liver transplantation;

B. The eligibility requirements for the various classes of membership in the Society are as follows:

Allied Health Professional Members in good standing have the right to vote but may not serve on the Council.

Trainee Member: A physician, scientist, or health care professional interested in the field of liver transplantation who is in full time training shall be eligible to become a Trainee Member of the Society. No person shall continue as a Trainee Member upon completion or discontinuance of the training entitling such person to such membership. Trainee Members in good standing have the right to vote but may not serve on the Council.

C. Such a member may be expelled only after he/she has had notice in writing of the reason for expulsion and, except with respect to expulsion due to nonpayment of dues or other financial obligations owing to the Society, an opportunity to appear in person or by counsel in a hearing by the Council to be held thereon. Upon such expulsion, all his/her rights and privileges as a member of the Society shall be forfeited and terminated.

D. An annual meeting of the membership of the Society shall be held at a time and location determined by the Council, generally during the Society's annual Congress.
