The IRS deadline for mailing Consolidated Form 1099 is February 15. This is a change from the previous January 31 deadline. Our clearing firm, Clearview Correspondent Services, LLC will handle the processing and mailing of these documents. Because of the increased volume of information for some complex investments, the IRS allows a 30-day extension for firms to gather information. This may include investments in companies that have dividend reclassification such as RICS (Regulated Investment Companies), mutual funds, and REITS (Real Estate Investment Trusts). In order to capture late information from these type companies, and lessen the need for corrected tax statements, Clearview will mail Consolidated Tax Statements no later than February 18, 2011. Clients that do not hold these types of securities will receive their tax statement in January.
