The Emmy Lou Tompkins Foundation
Guidelines and Policies

The Emmy Lou Tompkins Foundation was established as a charitable trust in 1998 by a gift from Emmy Lou Tompkins. The family foundation was originally named The West Virginia Foundation but, in 2002, the trustees decided to rename it in honor of their mother, Emmy Lou Tompkins. The Foundation is dedicated to the purpose of building and preserving strong families. The trustees are particularly interested in assisting women and children in need who, through the Foundation's support, may be enabled to help themselves achieve better lives. At the same time, the trustees are determined to maintain a flexible style of grantmaking in order to respond to new interests and opportunities, emerging needs, and changing conditions in society. Consistent with their grantmaking interest in building strong families, in 2002, three representatives of the family's third generation were added to the trustee board.

Information for Applicants

The trustees of the Emmy Lou Tompkins Foundation meet annually in August to make their grant allocation decisions. Organizations are welcome to apply by submitting an initial letter of inquiry anytime after September1 in one year and before February 28 in the following year leading up to the allocation meeting that they wish to receive consideration.

Interested applicants are asked to begin the application process by submitting in duplicate a brief letter of no more than two pages. Duplicate copies of the organization's tax exempt letter and its list of board members and key staff should accompany the paper. The letter of inquiry should outline the purposes for which funds are needed and should include a brief budget narrative. The letter is intended to help the trustees determine which applicants will be invited to submit full proposals and to save applicants the time and expense of submitting costly materials.

To allow time for thorough trustee review and consideration, the effective deadline for submitting a letter of inquiry is February 28 in order for an application to be part of the August cycle in that year.

The Emmy Lou Tompkins Foundation accepts common proposal formats as substitute for or in addition to the letter of inquiry.

Organizations which have submitted successful letters of inquiry will be notified and invited to submit full proposals. All others will receive denial letters.

Proposals may be submitted to The Emmy Lou Tompkins Foundation at the invitation of the trustees following their review of a letter of inquiry. The invitations will be sent out in April to allow the applicant time to finalize its full proposal in advance of the Foundation's June 30 deadline. The receipt of an invitation should not be misconstrued as a promise of eventual funding.

The full proposal should include in duplicate:

A brief cover letter
A proposal of no more than five (5) pages
A project budget, including projected income and expenses and any information that may be known about support from other sources
An updated budget narrative
The names of the project staff and their qualifications
An updated list of the organization's board and leadership staff, including relevant background and affiliations.
The audited financial statement for the most recently completed fiscal year and a complete copy of the most recent form 990 Federal tax return.
A copy of the organization's current budget and, if available, the budget for the year ahead.

The Foundation cannot accept incomplete proposals. Applicants should make sure that all the requested information is enclosed with their proposal.

Grant proposals are accepted for only one year at a time.

All applicants will be notified of the outcome of their requests by grant letter or denial letter no later than September 30 following the trustees' meeting in August.

Each grantee is expected to submit within one year of receipt of a grant a brief report on the use of Emmy Lou Tompkins Foundation funds. The report should describe the outcome of the funded project indicating, to the extent possible, which expectations were realized and which were not. It would also be interesting to know about any future plans for the project.
