STATE STREET PHILANTHROPY PROGRAM GUIDELINES

ABOUT STATE STREET

State Street Corporation is the world's leader in providing institutional investors with investment servicing, investment management and investment research and trading Headquartered in Boston, Mass , State Street operates in 25 countries and more than 100 markets worldwide

STATE STREET FOUNDATION

Established in 1977, the State Street Foundation administers the funds for our Community Support Programs, including philanthropy, matching gifts and corporate contributions to the annual United Way campaign. The Philanthropy Program targets initiatives by charitable organizations that serve the less advantaged in communities around the world where State Street has a significant business presence. Managed by Community Affairs, the Philanthropy Program helps generate and sustain positive change in our communities This grantmaking program is facilitated by more than 30 contribution committees around the globe

FUNDING FOCUS

Our philanthropic goal is to increase opportunities and access to services for those in need by funding charitable organizations in these program areas:

> Human Services To increase access to health care, legal assistance, social and family services and to improve the capacity of hunger reduction and shelter programs in our communities.

> Educational Programs. To enhance education and employment opportunities by focusing on mentoring and tutoring, job skills training, and financial and language literacy.

> Community Improvement and Development: To improve the quality of life and physical environment of communities by supporting affordable housing, neighborhood regeneration, small business development and community beautification

Due to our focus on programmatic funding, please do not submit requests for:

> General operating support

> Endowments or capital campaigns

> Individual needs, including scholarships and other forms of financial aid

> Sectarian activities for religious organizations

> Political causes or advocacy campaigns

> Travel for individuals or groups

> Television and film projects

> Medical research and disease-specific initiatives

continued >
