Funds allocated to special projects are proposed to the Board of Directors either by US Missionary Staff members serving abroad or by pastors or denominational leaders from the nations Ministry Resource Network, Inc serves.

Proposals are entertained only if national leaders on the respective field approve of the proposed projects.

When a project is approved by the Directors, it may be funded from the corporation's general fund or from special gifts donated for the project by individuals or churches in the US, or by a combination of these three sources.

Accountability for proper use of the funds provided is the joint responsibility of denominational leaders on the field and our field staff.

Fourteen Christian workers serving the Evangelical Church of Bosnia Hercegovina receive modest levels of support on a monthly basis from Ministry Resource Network, Inc. Their support levels are approved by the National Presbytery and the money is provided to members of the Presbytery for distribution to these 14 individuals. In effect Ministry Resource Network, Inc provides these amounts to the denomination and the individuals are paid by their own national church.
