Notes to Financial Statements 2010

January 6, 2011

Victory Christian Ministry of Lexington, KY. Inc. is a non profit organization exempt from income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service Code. The primary function of the organization is to receive donations, gifts, and endorsements, to use its income and other assets for the advancement of the Great Commission, the Gospel of Jesus Christ through religious, educational, and charitable purposes as stated in the Articles of Incorporation, Article III. The minister Reverend R. Douglas Reeves has held credentials since 1987 with the General Council of the Assemblies of God located in Springfield, MO. and since June 1991 through June 2008 has been a member of the International Charismatic Bible Ministries located in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The ministry was incorporated in May 28, 1991, receiving its advance determination and exemption on September 3, 1991 and was determined not to be a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Service Code. On March 29, 1995, the Internal Revenue Service issued a permanent exemption status to Victory Christian Ministry of Lexington, Ky. Inc. as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization under section 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Service Code.

The ministry uses a cash method of accounting on a calendar year basis. The books and records are in the custody of R. Douglas Reeves at 168 Manitoba Lane, Lexington, KY. 40515. All gifts of cash or other assets are reported and considered available for unrestricted use, unless specifically restricted by the donor. If a donation is restricted limiting the use of that donated asset, it is reported as a temporarily restricted donation. When the donor restriction expires, or the purpose restriction is accomplished, the temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and are reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. There have been no bequest or pledges donated to the ministry.
