Late filing Organization respectfully requests waiver of any delinquent filing penalties based upon the problems encountered in complying with information requests of newly hired CPA firm.
The Board judged the return to be simply too complex to continue preparing in-house. Therefore, an independent CPA firm was engaged to prepare the return. This process proved to be more time consuming and thorough than originally anticipated; however, it did result in a complete and accurate Form 990 being filed. Accordingly, as proper and prudent steps were taken by the Board to achieve a complete and accurate tax return, given the law changes which make compliance too difficult for the return to be prepared in house, the unexpected time required to comply with the independent CPA firm requests for information in order to prepare the return, and that this should be a one-time delinquency since the outside return preparation process has now become familiar to both the organization
