Telephone:	918-744-0553
Form and Content:	The A. R. and Marylouise Tandy Foundation supports artistic, educational, charitable, religious and other non-profit entities which are not private foundations. The Foundation does not make grants to individuals. The Foundation primarily supports entities in the Oklahoma and Maine and principally those entities in Tulsa, Oklahoma and Boothbay Harbor, Maine regions. The Advisory Committee determines the amount of distributions to be made by the Foundation and the entities which are to receive distributions. Meetings of the Advisory Committee are held on a quarterly basis, normally around the first weeks of February, May, August and November. All requests for contributions should be submitted by the first day of January, April, July and October. Requests for contributions must be in writing. No prescribed form is required but the information should include the IRS Exemption Letter of the organization and a description of the project for which the contribution is requested. The Advisory Committee will generally only consider requests for capital (building) projects. Additional information may be requested by the Advisory Committee. If additional information is requested, it should be submitted by the prescribed date. Organizations will not be advised if theit requests have been denied. Requests not favorably acted upon may be considered at subsequent meetings of the Advisory Committee.
Submission Deadlines:	See above.
