Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Late Filing Statement	The return is being filed late because a portion of the information required to prepare a complete and accurate return was not received until after the extended filing date. The headquarters office of the society for range management sent the information later than normal because it was in transition between accounting firms. Additionally, another unforeseen problem came up due to the change in brokerage companies, in which investments were sold generating more than $200,000 in gross receipts therefore, requiring preparation of the long Form 990 rather than the short Form 990-EZ. We believe the reliance on third party information meets the qualifications of reasonable cause under IRC 6651(a)(1). An assessment of a penalty will cause undue hardship on the organization to complete its mission as an IRC 501(c)(3) public charity.
