BYLAWS OF
WILSON N. JONES COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
A TEXAS NONPROFIT CORPORATION

ARTICLE I
OFFICES AND AGENT

1.01 Principal Office. The principal office of the corporation in the State of Texas shall be located in the City of Sherman, County of Grayson. The corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Texas, as the Board of Directors may determine or as the affairs of the corporation may require from time to time.

1.02 Registered Office and Registered Agent. The corporation shall have and shall continuously maintain in the State of Texas a registered office and a registered agent whose office is identical with such registered office, as required by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. The registered office may be, but need not be identical with the principal office of the corporation in the State of Texas, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

2.01 General Powers. The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors.

2.02 Number, Election, Tenure, and Qualifications. Directors shall be elected by the Board of Directors of the Foundation, in accordance with the corporation's articles of incorporation. The number of Directors shall be not less than three or more than fifteen. Members of the Board of Directors will serve three (3) year terms. A member of the Board of Directors shall serve no more than two consecutive terms and shall not be eligible again for election to the Board until after a lapse of one year. In the event of a vacancy on the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors shall appoint a new Director to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term of such new Director's predecessor in office. All members of the Board of Directors shall be selected for their ability to participate effectively in fulfilling the Board's responsibilities.

2.03 Emeritus Status. Emeritus status is offered to all Past Chairpersons of the Board of Directors. Emeritus members are invited to all Board of Directors meetings and have the privilege of the floor although they do not have a vote. Emeritus members may be actively involved in committee work of the Board of Directors. Emeritus status is by election of the Board with the consent of the Director at the end of his eligibility of service, ordinarily after serving two three-year terms. Emeritus status is for a three-year period and is subject to removal.

2.04 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at least quarterly at some time and place as the Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall designate. One of the quarterly meetings will be considered the annual meeting with its time and place to be determined by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution the time and place, either within or without the State of Texas, for the holding of additional regular meetings of the Board without notice other than such resolution.

2.05 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the President or any two Directors. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Board may fix any place, either within or without the State of Texas, as the place for holding any special meetings of the Board called by them.

2.06 Attendance. Directors must attend at least fifty percent (50%) of the regularly scheduled Board meetings each fiscal year. Exceptions may be made upon request to the Chairperson of the Board. Directors not fulfilling the attendance requirements for the year are to be contacted by the Chairperson of the Board to determine their interest in remaining on the Board.

2.07 Notice. Notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given at least two days previously thereto by written notice delivered personally or sent by mail, or email to each Director at his address as shown by the records of the corporation. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail so addressed with postage thereon prepaid. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a Director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless specifically required by law or by these Bylaws.

2.08 Quorum. A majority of the members of the Board of Directors (not including Directors present by proxy) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board; but if less than a majority of the directors are present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present in person or by properly executed proxy may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

2.09. Manner of Action. The act of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or by these Bylaws. Attendance at a Board meeting may be in person or by proxy, but Directors present by proxy shall not be counted toward a quorum.

2.10. Compensation. Directors as such shall not receive any stated salaries for their services, but by resolution of the Board of Directors a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the board; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation thereof.

2.11. Informal Action by Directors. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of Directors, or any action that may be taken at a meeting of Directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing or email, setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by a majority of the Directors.

2.12. Telephone Meetings. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the Directors, or any action that may be taken at a meeting of Directors, may be taken by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other.

ARTICLE III

OFFICERS

3.01. Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, a Chairperson, a Vice- Chairperson, and such other officers as may be selected in accordance with the provisions of this Article III. The Board of Directors may elect or appoint such other officers, including one or more Chairperson Elect, one or more Assistant Secretaries and one or more Assistant Treasurers, as it shall deem desirable, such officers to have the authority and perform the duties prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of President and Secretary.

3.02. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the regular annual meeting of the Directors. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as may be convenient. New offices may be created and filled at any meeting of the Directors. Each officer shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

3.03. Removal. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in the Board's judgment the best interests of the corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the officer so removed.

3.05. Chairperson of the Board of Directors. The directors, by the majority vote of a quorum of the Directors, shall elect one of the Directors to be the Chairperson of the Board of Directors and shall elect another of the Directors to be Vice-Chairperson of the Board of Directors. The Chairperson (or, in the Chairperson's absence, the Vice-Chairperson) shall call and preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, shall interest himself in all affairs of the Foundation, and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees. The Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson shall hold such positions until their successors are appointed.

3.06. Vice-Chairperson. In the absence of the President/ Executive Director or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Vice-Chairperson, if any (or in the event there be more than one Vice-Chairperson, the Executive Directors in order of election), shall perform the duties of the Executive Director, and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Executive Director. Any Vice- Chairperson shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Executive Director shall designate another officer of the corporation to act in the Executive Director's place in the event of the Executive Director's absence or inability to act.

3.07. President. The President shall also serve as the Executive Director and shall be the principal executive officer of the corporation and shall in general supervise and control all of the business and affairs of the corporation. He may sign, with the Secretary or any other proper officer of the corporation authorized by the Board of Directors, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments that the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed except in cases where the signing and the execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws or by statute to some other officer or agent of the corporation; and in general the President shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

3.08. Treasurer. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer, if any, shall give a bond for the faithful discharge of duties in such sum and with such surety or sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. He shall have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation; receive and give receipts for monies due and payable to the corporation from any source whatsoever; deposit all such monies in the name of the corporation into such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Article VI of these Bylaws; and in general perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall serve as Chairperson of the Finance Committee.

3.09. Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; give all notices in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law; be custodian of the corporate records and of the corporate seal; certify all documents requiring duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws; and in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the President or the Board of Directors.

3.10. Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries. If required by the Board of Directors, the Assistant Treasurers shall give bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties in such sums and with such sureties as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries in general shall perform such duties as shall be assigned to them by the Treasurer, the Secretary, the Chairperson, or the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

COMMITTEES

4.01. Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, may designate and appoint one or more committees, each of which shall consist of one or more Directors, which committees, to the extent provided in said resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation. No such committee, however, shall have the authority of the Board of Directors in reference to amending, altering, or repealing the Bylaws; electing, appointing, or removing any member of any such committee or any director or officer of the corporation; amending the Articles of Incorporation; adapting a plan of merger or adopting a plan of consolidation with another corporation; authorizing the sale, lease, exchange, or mortgage of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation; authorizing the voluntary dissolution of the corporation or revoking proceedings therefore; adopting a plan for the distribution of the assets of the corporation; or amending, altering, or repealing any resolution of the Board of Directors that by its terms provides that it shall not be amended, altered, or repealed by such committee. The designation and appointment of any such committee and the delegation of authority thereto shall not operate to relieve the Directors, or any individual Director, of any responsibility imposed on it or him by law.

ARTICLE TEN LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

10.01 General Limitation of Liability for Directors

- (a) A Director shall discharge the Director's duties, including duties as a committee member, in good faith, with ordinary care, and in a manner the Director reasonably believes to be in the best interest of the Corporation.
- (b) A Director is not liable to the Corporation, a member, or another person for an action taken as a Director if the Director acted in compliance with this section. A person seeking to establish liability of a Director must prove that the Director did not act:
 - (1) in good faith;
 - (2) with ordinary care; and
 - (3) in a manner the Director reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the Corporation.

10.02 Exceptions for Limitation of Liability of Directors. Pursuant to Chapter 7.001(b) of the BOC, a Director of the organization is not liable to the organization or its owners or members for monetary damages for an act or omission by the person in the person's capacity as a Director, except that Chapter 7.001(b) does not authorize the elimination or limitation of the liability of a Director to the extent the person is found liable under applicable law for:

- (a) a breach of the person's duty of loyalty, if any, to the Corporation or its owners or members.
- (b) an act or omission not in good faith that:
 - (1) constitutes a breach of duty of the person to the Corporation; or
 - (2) involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;
- (c) a transaction from which the person received an improper benefit, regardless of whether the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the person's duties; or
- (d) an act or omission for which the liability of a (Director) is expressly provided by an applicable statute.

10.03 Limitation of Liability of Officers. Pursuant to Chapter 22.235(a) of the BOC, an officer is not liable to the Corporation or any other person for an action taken or omission made by the officer in the person's capacity as an officer unless the officer's conduct was not exercised:

- (a) in good faith;
- (b) with ordinary care; and
- (c) in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interest of the Corporation.

This section shall not affect the liability of the Corporation for an act or omission of the officer.

ARTICLE ELEVEN
AMENDMENT OF CERTIFICATE OF FORMATION AND BYLAWS

The Board of Directors shall have the power to amend the Certificate of Formation and Bylaws of the Corporation upon the approval of a majority of the Board of Directors and, to the extent required pursuant to the Bylaws.

ARTICLE TWELVE
CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Board of Directors shall, in the exercise of its overall duties and responsibilities, take such steps as it deems appropriate to avoid and resolve potential conflicts of interest between the personal interests of Directors and the activities and interests of the Corporation. Such steps shall include adopting and requiring compliance with duality and conflict of interest policies and procedures and providing a method for individuals to disclose and resolve potential conflicts of interest. All conflicts of interest shall be disclosed to the Board of Directors and made a matter of record.

ARTICLE THIRTEEN
EFFECTIVENESS OF FILING

This document becomes effective on September 28, 2010, and is filed by the Secretary of State.
