Restrictions on Awards: The Foundation has expanded the time period in which a recipient may complete their under-graduate degree from four years to six years, as set forth on the attached Scholarship Application and Guidelines. The change was made based on concerns by educators that in the current environment students are often needing at least six years to complete their educations. For 2010 forward the Foundation's scholarship guidelines were amended to limit scholarships to non-profit colleges and /or universities. Complete details are also available on the Foundation's website: www.thesimmonsfoundation.org.
