HUDDLESTON FOUNDATION CONTINUING EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The Huddleston Foundation Scholarship Committee will select recipients that are to attend or are attending accredited colleges and/or universities located in the United States.

Selection Criteria

Scholarship – Good scholarship is important although there are no minimum grade requirements. Grades may be weighed considering the degree of difficulty of courses taken and the effort of the student in relation to their respective ability.

Leadership – The applicant should have demonstrated leadership for both the school and the community.

Participation – The applicant must have participated in a minimum of two separate recognized extracurricular activities including at least one activity in the senior year. (Two or more years in a single activity does not qualify.)

Potential – The applicant's potential as a positive contributor to society should be carefully considered.

Payments

Scholarships will generally be granted in the range of $500 to $1,500 per semester subject to modification at the committee's discretion.

Payments will be made at the start of each semester and will continue at the sole discretion of the committee provided however.

Requirements

1. The recipient must take a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester and maintain a minimum grade point ratio of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale (or the equivalent on other scales)
2. The scholarship will terminate in the event:
 - a. Failure to maintain minimum hours and grades
 - b. More than one change of the major course of study after the Initial major is selected.
3. The applicant must maintain an unmarried status. Exceptions to this requirement may be considered by the committee.

Semester Report

Grades must be submitted to the committee promptly when the recipient receives grades at the end of each semester.
