Name of the organization

Star Valley Hospital Foundation

Employer identification number

83-0294706

Part VI Line 11b- The foundation is a very small foundation that's sole purpose and operation is to raise funds for equipment for the local hospital. The foundation has no employees so the hospital provides staff and help at no charge to help the foundation. The form 990 is prepared by the hospital's CFO who is a CPA with experience in preparation of these types of returns. The form 990 is reviewed with the governing board of the foundation and the part time foundation director who is employed by and furnished to the foundation at the expense of the hospital. The hospital is a non-profit governmental entity monitored by the State of Wyoming and it's Department of Audit

Part VI Line 19 - The hospital holds the records and files for the foundation. All records are available for public inspection during office hours. Foundation board meetings are open to the public and meeting times posted. Financial statements are reviewed at the meetings. The foundation and the hospital have conflict of interest policies and compliance is monitored by the hospital's compliance officer
