Statement 2

The Pikes Peak Post of Society of American Military Engineers (SAME) promotes professional development and social opportunities for military, public agency, and private industry engineers, planners, and management consultants involved in military and public works projects that support national defense and the public welfare. The Pikes Peak Post has been supporting civilian and military engineers for 50 years. Currently, our post is comprised of approximately 450 members with a large mixture of active duty, civil service, and contractor personnel.

Statement 3

The Pikes Peak Post hosted a regional SAME conference to promote training, education, collaboration and networking among the SAME members throughout the Rocky Mountain region.

Statement 4

The scholarship opportunity is open to any student who plans to pursue an engineering degree and has at least one family member (sibling, parent, or grandparent) who is either: (1) an active SAME member, (2) a current member of the U.S. Military, or (3) retired from the U.S. Military.

Statement 5

The Pikes Peak Post has established a small business committee to increase small business membership, participation, and leadership, and to enhance post programs to include topics focused toward small businesses.

Statement 6

The Pikes Peak Post is focused on expanding membership to include small businesses and community members alike. The participation program requires quarterly dues that are designed to encourage new membership and continued participation by existing members. Dues are payable on-line at any time. Support comes principally from members and fund-raising efforts, which encourage community members and dues-paying members to participate together. The activities supported by the Pikes Peak Post are designed to appeal to, and encourage social opportunities for, military, public agency and private industry engineers, planners and management consultants involved in military and public works projects that support national defense and the public welfare.
