PHIL LONG COMMUNITY FUND - Guidelines

1. The Phil Long Community Fund Mission: To sponsor activities and resources that champion the self-esteem and performance of youth in their pursuit of achieving excellence in sports, education and recreation. Applications that meet the mission of the Community Fund will be presented to the Board for review.
2. The Community Fund seeks to fund programs and activities that provide direct assistance to as many children as possible. Therefore, the Community Fund DOES NOT consider operational expenses, vehicle donations - maintenance - repairs, funding of individuals or public/private school playground projects. Operating expenses are defined as staff/volunteer time or training, program start up costs or any costs needed to operate a program (i.e. production, printing, bldg. rentals, etc.), food and some transportation costs.
3. The Community Fund is a non-denominational philanthropic program. Grants to programs sponsored by religious organizations may be funded if the program or activity is clearly distinguished from religious activities.
4. Any organization may apply for a grant of up to $10,000 unless other arrangements have been made with the grant administrator. Typical funding is between $500 and $5,000.
5. All applications must be complete AND submitted in the order requested on the checklist. (see grant application and checklist for details)
6. Each grant recipient will be required to submit a Final Report to the Community Fund Board of Directors. Final reports are due one month after the completion of a grantees program. If an extension is needed, you must submit your request in writing/email to the PLCF Grant Manager: Michelle Hill (mhill@phillong.com).
