PRIMA-AZ is a non profit organization made up of professional risk managers and insurance related persons. We meet quarterly for educational purposes and once in the fall. All the income received by this organization is through membership fees, fall conference registration, and vendor sponsorships for the fall conference.

Common expenses for the organization are conference and meeting related expenses and stipends for members to attend training functions.

We are a volunteer organization with the officers and directors being voting members of the organization, no salaries or benefits are provided to them.
