recognized as a basic and fundamental health-care service; improve access to family planning services; improve the availability and accuracy of sexuality education in public schools; keep abortion safe and legal; and reduce teen pregnancy rate in Washington.

The program fulfills this work in three specific areas:

Media/PR: The goal of the program is to submit at least one letter to the editor monthly to increase awareness and support for its issues. An active relationship with local media also entails periodic press releases about issues and events pertinent to MBPP.

Activists/volunteers: The Public Policy Program seeks to foster an active relationship with its volunteers and community activists as well as to expand the base. MBPP has 184 active volunteers and database of 787 activists.

Legislative/Policy: The Public Affairs Department maintains an active relationship with state and federal legislators. The department is responsible for keeping abreast of and dispersing information about relevant state and national policy. The program encourages and fosters activist outreach to local and federal legislators.

active relationship with its volunteers and community activists as well as to expand the base. MBPP has 156 active volunteers and database of 10,884 activists.

Legislative/Policy: The Public Affairs Department maintains an active relationship with state and federal legislators. The department is responsible for keeping abreast of and dispersing information about relevant state and national policy. The program encourages and fosters activist outreach to local and federal legislators.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: Form 990 and required schedules are prepared by our auditors. MBPP's Executive Director and Finance Director review Form 990 and required schedules prior to providing copies to the members of the governing body. Each member of the organization's Board of Directors is provided with a paper copy of Form 990 and required schedules before it is filed with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: The conflict of interest policy requires staff, Board Members and volunteers to disclose in writing any conflict of interest annually. The Board of Directors determines whether conflicts of interest exists and if so the Board votes to authorize or reject the transaction or take any other action deemed necessary to address the conflict and protect Mt Baker Planned Parenthood's best interest.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: Mt Baker Planned Parenthood determines compensation of the Executive Director (ED) based on an established annual review process. Initially, anonymous feedback on ED performance is solicited from members of the Board of Directors (BoD) and
