Part II, line 17a: The Scottish Rite Foundation of WA meets the "facts-and-circumstances" test - 2010 - as follows:

1. The Foundation maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from our community of Scottish Rite Masons and the Scottish Rite "Valleys" around the state, by periodic reminders by articles in Scottish Rite newsletters and other promotion, such as speaking presentations and website reminders. We have a good record of generous gifts and bequests received, and continue to encourage these.
2. The Foundation's sources of support are past bequests and current gifts from individuals and Scottish Rite "Valleys" from all parts of the state.
3. The Foundation has a governing board made up of Scottish Rite Masons from all parts of the state.
4. The Foundation provides college student scholarships and fellowships to students enrolled in baccalaureate and graduate programs at public and private colleges and universities in all parts of the state of Washington.
5. The Foundation's activities appeal to Scottish Rite Masons around the state, who have a common interest in supporting higher education to assist the younger generation in becoming better community leaders of the future.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

All grants are issued with names and identifying numbers of recipients and with specific instructions that scholarships are for the recipients who will be enrolled at the institution for the specific school year stated. And further, that the "award is to be used by these students toward the payment of tuition expenses according to the rules and regulations of your School.

Any monies not so used by these students, by reason of non-enrollment or otherwise, should be returned to the Scottish Rite Scholarship Foundation." Periodically, refunds are received from the Institutions if recipients fail to register full-time for one or more terms (quarters or semesters).

The Scottish Rite Scholarship Foundation receives many letters of thanks from recipients, and periodically invites recipients as speakers at our meetings during the subsequent years.

Part VIA, Line 7a:

Members of the governing body (Directors) are selected by the Scottish Rite "Valley" (area) they represent, as vacancies arise. The officers are elected by the Directors, or in case of short notice of vacancy, by appointment by the President.

Part VIB, Line 11b:

Form 990 is not provided to governing body before filing. Directors & officers may receive copies of 990 as needed. After filing, copies are sent to the Scottish Rite WA state head & CFO of the Supreme Council in Washington, D.C. for review.

Part VIB, Line 12c:

Annually, each Director, Assistant Director, Officer, or any other person associated with the Foundation must disclose to the Foundation President or Secretary any financial interests that could give rise to conflicts of interest. Each year, the Foundation Secretary affirms in writing to the Orient SGIG (Scot. Rite state head) that all disclosures have been made.

In order to avoid any conflict of interest, the existence, including relevant details, of such financial interest must be disclosed to the Foundation. If the transaction involves a possible scholarship, the person with the conflict of interest may not serve on the Grading Committee while that application is being considered.

Part VIC, Line 19:

The Foundation does not make its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, or financial statements available to the public. However our Form 990, which has short-form financial statements, is available some months after filing online at the Washington Secretary of State website.
